

POLISH RIGHTEOUS

THOSE WHO RISKED THEIR LIVES

RIGHTEOUS OF THE WORLD

by CHAIM CHEFER

The Polish underground resistance was keeping records, but they were destroyed in the Warsaw Uprising. The institute that was the repository for information about the crimes against the Polish nation in Warsaw collected this particular information that was published in 1996 in a book, Those That Helped.

Registry of over 700 Polish citizens killed while helping Jews During the Holocaust:

1. ABRAMEK, W³adys³aw, 20, living in Wola Przybys³awska, near Garbów, Lublin prov.
killed by Germans on Dec. 10, 1942, while staying at his cousin, Józef Aftyka, who sheltered Jews. (see 3-6)
2. ADAMCZYK, Stanis³aw, living in Ł[±]cko, Nowy S[±]cz prov.
in Spring of 1943; he was beaten to death by W³adys³aw Gleb, the German town mayor of Mszana Dolna, for sheltering a Jew.
3. AFTYKA, Józef, 54, living in Wola Przybys³awska, near Garbów, Lublin prov.
4. AFTYKA, Aniela, 52, Józef's wife
5. AFTYKA, Marianna, 14, daughter
6. AFTYKA, Zofia, 17, daughter murdered by Germans on Dec. 10, 1942 together with a group of Jews sheltered by them and with W³adys³aw Abramek. On the same day Czes³aw and Leonard Gawron from the same village were also killed together with Aniela and Stanis³aw Kamiński, 5 members of the Nalewka family and 5 others of the Ochmiński family - a total of 19 people (see: 1, 137-138, 209- 210, 390-391, 411) 7. AMBRO^Y, Marianna, 75, living in Podborek, Radom prov.
died on July 11, 1943, together with the Kowalczyk family, shot on the charge of helping Jews (see: 264-266)
8. ANICET (i.e. priest Wojciech KAPLIŃSKI) 66, chaplain of the monastery in Miodowa Str. in Warsaw arrested on Oct. 16, 1941 for aiding Jews; died the same year at Auschwitz
9. ARASZKIEWICZ, Aleksandra, living in Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov.
A sizable group of Jews from Ceg³ów took refuge in the village of Cisie, (incl. Esther, Yoyne Mendel and the baby Jab³onka Goldstein) as well as Jews who escaped from the "death trains" to Treblinka via aCeg³ów. On June 28, 1943 raids were carried out on the village by the military police from Mińsk Mazowiecki, during which 25 Poles, incl. railwaymen, were snatched from their homes, together with numerous Jews they sheltered and murdered: Marcin D¹browski, Franciszek Fiutkowski, Aleksander G¹sior, Henryk Gergera, Rozalia Jaworska with her 2 years old daughter, Tadeusz Lipiński, Zygmunt Ma³us, Stanis³aw Pe³cyk, Tomasz and Sylweryusz P³atek,

Edward Ręysko, W³adys³aw Saski, Eugeniusz Skwieciński, Marian and Piotr Smater, Jan Szcześny, Józefa Szyperska, Aleksandra W¹sowska, Jan and ,

Mieczys³aw W¹sowski, W³adys³aw Wójcicki, Jan Zagańczyk and Ludwik Zaj¹c. Wies³aw Walczewski was arrested the same day, but shot in January 1944. The VILLAGE WAS BURNT DOWN. (see: 92, 124, 141-142, 186- 187, 332, 361. 456, 470-471, 536, 539, 560, 564-565, 597, 604, 630, 635-637, 677, 693, 696)

10. ARCHUTOWSKI, Roman, priest, rector of the Archdiocesan Seminary in Warsaw sent to Majdanek for aiding Jews; died after torture in Oct. 1943

11. ARCISZEWSKI, Albin, 45, living at Orlicz, near Garbów, Lublin prov. executed in September 1943 for helping Jews from the camp at Antopol; he tried to save Dr. Czerniak, his wife and 2 daughters, Isaac Elfenstein, Lena Mazurska and Itka Wo³yniec

12. AUGUSTYN, Józef. living in Szerzyny, Tarnów prov.

13. AUGUSTYN, Józefa, his wife they sheltered 3 Jews from Szerzyny, the family of Elias and Hersh Haskel, shot together with them on Feb. 4, 1944 by German military police

14. AUGUSTYNIAK, Franciszek, 30, worker, living at Paulinów, near Soko³ów Podlaski, Siedlce prov.

shot by an SS unit on Feb. 24, 1943, together with a group of 14 people, victims of a provocation: several weeks earlier they rendered help to a Nazi agent, who pretended to be a Jewish fugitive. Died also Zygmunt Dryga, Franciszek Kirylski, Józef, Ewa and Stanis³aw Kotowski, Stanis³aw Piwko, Jan Oliwiński, Aleksandra Wiktorzak (see: 111, 216, 259-261, 469, 609, 648) Stanis³aw Kusiak and Stanis³aw Mazurek died in the Treblinka camp (see 314, 374) Died also Czes³aw Borowy, Jan Brzozowski and Stanis³aw Henduszek (see: 43, 57, 166)

15. BACZEWSKA, Honorata, 30, teacher living in Lublin underground liason officer and AK (Home Army) press carrier, murdered for sheltering Jews early in 1945 by Ukrainian nationalists.

16. BANASZEK, Marianna, 50, living in Pustelnik, near Marki, Warsaw prov.

17. BANASZEK Stanis³awa, daughter

18. BANASZEK, W³adys³aw, son murdered in October 1943 for hiding a Jewish family of 3. This Jewish family, informed of the threat of a raid on the house, luckily escaped.

19. BARAN, Adam, 29, living in Hucisko, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.

20. BARAN Szczepan, 36

On June 10, 1943 the German military police from Rzeszów surrounded the village of Hucisko and murdered 21 inhabitants of it and of the neighbouring village of Przewrotne, for sheltering Jews. Died also: Franciszek Beskur, Jadwiga Chezalik, Franciszek Dr¹g, Anna Dworak and 7 members of her family: Anna, Jan, Katarzyna, Maria, Micha³, Stefania and Zofia; Adam, Józef and Marcin Gut, Marcin Kolano, Jakub and Józef Rumak, Józef S³uja and Adam Susich. The Germans burnt down 17 homes and numerous service buildings (see: 31, 61, 110, 113-120, 161-163, 222, 521-522, 563, 589)

Similar measures were carried out twice in the village of Przewrotne (see: 49-51, 70-71)

21. BARAN, Rozalia, living in Modrych, near Hrubieszów, Zamooæ prov.

In December 1942 beaten up and then murdered for giving her own "Kennkarte" to a Jewess, who using it went to work in Germany, was recognized and captured

22. BARANEK, Wincenty, 46, farmer, from Siedliska, near Miechów, Kielce prov.

23 . BARANEK, Łucja, 35, his wife

24. BARANEK, Henryk, 12, son
25. BARANEK, Tadeusz, 10, son
26. BARANEK, Katarzyna, mother of Wincenty murdered by military police on March 15, 1941 together with Katarzyna Kopeæ, mother of Łucja and the Jews they were sheltering: Pińczowski, Skowron, Sybirski and Weitzman (see: 228) 27. BARGLIK, Maria, 51, farmer, living in Tokarnia, Cracow prov.
killed on March 6, 1944, following sentence passed by a special court (Sondergericht) at Szaflary for sheltering the 6 members family of Samuel Steinberg 28. BARGLIK, Stefan, living in Tokarnia, Cracow prov.
shot on the strength of the special court verdict of the SS and police commander (Standgericht) in Cracow for "fostering Jews and sheltering them"; the execution of the verdict was pronounced on Feb. 21, 1944 29. BARSZCZ, Marianna, 16, living in Moszeñki, near Jastków, Lublin prov.
employed by farmers Marian and Zofia Wymulski, who concealed in an underground shelter 4 Jews, while providing also others with food and medicines. On Sept. 25, 1943, Germans shot also Zofia Wymulska and the Jews they protected (see: 689) 30. BERSKI, Jerzy, living in Warsaw killed in combat against Germans in April 1943, during the offensive near the Warsaw ghetto walls, organized by the GL (People's Guard) 31. BESKUR, Franciszek, 35, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów, Rzeszów prov.
shot on June 10, 1943 in the village of Hucisko, in a mass execution for sheltering Jews (see: 19-20) 32. BIELNIAK, Franciszek, 32, shoemaker, from G³ębokie, near Biecz, Krosno pr.
shot by Gestapo on Jan. 14 1943 for rendering help to Jews
33. BIENKOWSKI, Gerwazy, from Kietlin, near Radomsko, Piotrków prov.
executed in November 1943 with W³adys³aw and Franciszka Librowski for his part in sheltering 2 Jews: Chêciñski and Bugajski (see: 329-330)
34. BOBELOWA, (Christian name unknown) from Łuck (now in Soviet Ukraine)
35. BOBELOWA's mother murdered by Germans in Fall 1943 for hiding a Jewish owner of a local brewery, Sznajder Bobel, who having been warned, managed to escape 36. BOBROWSKI, Jan, 50, farmer, from Lipiny, near Pilzno, Tarnów prov.
killed in March 1943 for sheltering Jews; his farmstead was burnt down 37. BOGDANOWICZ, Anna, living in Jas³o, Krosno prov.
arrested at the end of November 1942 for sheltering Sarah Diller, who survived. Tortured, she perished soon after in Auschwitz. Posthumously awarded by Yad Vashem the medal as "Righteous Among Nations"
38. BOGUCKA, (Christian name unknown) from Pastewnik, near Borszczów (locality incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine) widow of the local butcher, Karol Bogucki; arested in June 1943, killed in Czortków for sheltering 11 Jews. She left behind her 3 orphan children.
39. BOREK, Stanis³aw, farmer, living in Sadkowice near Lipsko, Radom prov.
40. BOREK, Helena, his wife
41. BOREK, Czes³aw, son
42. BOREK, Piotr
shot on Jan. 8, 1943 for help to Jews. Together with them perished their daughter, Honorata, with her husband Ryszard Wójtowicz (see: 684-685)

43. BOROWY, Czesław, worker, from Paulinów, near Sokołów Podlaski, Siedlce prov shot on Feb. 24, 1943 as one of the 14 persons victims of a provocation some weeks earlier they gave help to a Nazi agent, pretending to be a Jew (see 14)
44. BORYCKI, Stanisław, 44, farmer, from Boisko, near Lipsko, Radom prov.
45. BORYCKA, Zofia, 38, his wife
46. BORYCKI, Zbigniew, son shot on Jan 2, 1943, for helping Jews. Their homstead was burnt down.
With them were killed 3 persons of the Krawczyk family (see: 279-281)
47. BRAJA, Władysław, living at Równe, near Dukla, Krosno prov. executed in August or September 1943 for harbouring 3 Jewish people
48. BRONISŁAWSKI, Edward, living in Warsaw shot on Apr. 21, 1943, when as a liason officer of the GL (People's Guard) he tried to supply guns to the Jewish ghetto. His wife Wiktorina and his son Zbigniew were arrested. Their fate is unknown 49. BRUDZ, Antoni, 24, from Przewrotne, near Górogów. Rzeszów prov.
50. BUDZ, Wojciech, 34
51. BRUDZ, Walenty, 57
On Mar. 13, 1943 German police, under Gestapo supervision, killed around 30 people in the village of Przewrotne for sheltering Jews. Along them were killed: Andrzej, Franciszek and Wojciech Drąg; Michał Gaweł; Adam Organiociak and 6 members of his family: Andrzej, Aniela, Franciszek, Józef (born in 1906) Józef (born in 1912) and Wojciech; Łukasz and Wojciech Pomykała, Antoni Rusin, Jan Walc, Franciszek Wanoska, Franciszek and Józef Wilk. (see: 108-110, 136, 427-433, 476-477, 525, 629, 633, 650-652. Other names are unknown. A second execution at Przewrotne took place on May 9, 1943 (see: 70-71) as well as in the nearby village of Hucisko on June 10, 1943. (see: 19-20)
52. BRÜHL, Hanna, living at Milanówek, Warsaw prov.
shot on May 17, 1943, by military police from Grodzisk Mazowiecki in the "Anielin" villa of Milanówek, together with 4 Jews she concealed
53. BRUST, Jan, living at Raków, near Czêstochowa shot in the first half of 1944 at the Hasag-Eisenhütte A. G. camp, for distributing food and money and passing correspondence to Jewish inmates, as part of the campaign carried by the Relief Council for Jews 54. BRYNKUS, Cyryl, 44, from Spytkowice, near Auschwitz, Cracow prov.
arrested on Nov. 15, 1943 for help to Jewish population; jailed in Zakopane, transferred to Płaszów camp and then to Montelupich prison in Cracow. Shot there on May 28, 1944
55. BRYO, Johan, railwayman, living in Sosnowiec, Katowice prov.
he helped fugitives form the Sosnowiec ghetto, and transported some of them to Hungary. Arrested in 1944 by Gestapo, sent to Auschwitz, died there. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among Nations"
56. BRZOZOWSKA, Zofia, living at Kobyłka, Warsaw prov.
shot on Sep. 1, 1943 by Gestapo, together with 2 Jewish men, sheltered on her estate; one of them was Goldberg, owner of the tannery in Wołomin.
57. BRZOZOWSKI, Jan, 16, from Paulinów, near Sokołów Podlaski, Siedlce prov.
shot on Feb. 24, 1943, as one of the 14 persons, victims of a Nazi agent provocateur (see 14)
58. BUSZKO, Henryk, 30, farmer, living at Liza Stara, near Białystok murdered on Sep. 21, 1943, by gendarmes from Pietkowo, for helping Jews, hiding after their escape from the train to Treblinka

59. BUZOWICZ, Wincenty, living in Radom

60. BUZOWICZ, Anna, his wife on Apr. 3, 1943, sentenced to death by a special court in Radom for helping the Jewish women Sala Rubinowicz and Else Schwarzman. Also sentenced to death for that case were: Wiktoria Paduch, Jan Pinkus, Zenon Poloński and Maria Róžańska. (see: 442, 466, 475, 517)

61. CHEZALIK, Jadwiga, 41, farmer, from Hucisko, near G³ogów, Rzeszów prov.

killed on June 10, 1943 in a mass execution for sheltering Jews in which 21 villagers died (see: 19-20)

62. CHÊÆ, Franciszek, 17, living at Tomaszewice, near Jastków, Lublin prov.

foster-child of Leonard Pietrak, killed together with him and his family for harbouring 2 Jewish men, on Feb. 28, 1944 (see: 461-463)

63. CHOLEWIŃSKI, Marcin, 30, living at Grzyma³ków, near Kielce shot on Oct. 19, 1942, for supplying food to the Radoszyce ghetto

64. CHOREW, W³odzimierz, from Bereza Kartuska (now in the Soviet Ukraine)

65. CHOREW, his mother (name unknown)

66. CHOREW, his father (name unknown)

executed in fall 1943 together with the Jewish woman, Leycha Kap³an, they harboured

67. CHOWANIAK, Karol, farmer, from Zawoja, near Maków Podhalański, Bielsko prov.

68. CHOWANIAK, Tekla, his wife

Karol was arrested in May 1943, together with the 4 sheltered Jews, family Kuczko among them, who were shot on the spot. Karol underwent several weeks of investigation in the Gestapo prison "Palace" at Zakopane, and was sent to Auschwitz. Tekla was arrested with her foster-child, Karolina Marek, and was sent directly to Auschwitz. All three died there (see 368)

69. CHRACA, Karol, 46, living at Wróblówka, Nowy S¹cz prov.

executed by the Gestapo on May 20, 1942, at Czarny Dunajec, together with Józef Lehrer and his daughter, for supplying food to them and other Jewish people in hiding

70. CHUBRO, Marcin, 37, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów, Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.

71. CHUBRO, Micha³, 53

On May 9, 1943, following Gestapo orders, the military police from Rzeszów, surrounded the village of Przewrotne and murdered 16 Poles for harbouring Jews. Others who died also were: Andrzej Gola, Antoni Granat, Ludwik Gut, Józef Kuo. Pawe³ Laska, Jan Marsza³, Józef Tyburski (see: 148. 152. 164, 317, 323. 371, 618) The names of other 7 victims have not been established. Similar executions took place in Przewrotne on Mar. 13, 1943

(see: 49-51) as in the nearby Hucisko on June 10, 1943 (see: 19-20)

72. CHYBOWSKI, Franciszek, 60, from Rzędowice, near Ksi¹ę Wielki, Kielce pr.

73. CHYBOWSKA, Julia, 54, his wife

shot on Mar. 5, 1943, for sheltering Jews

74. CIESIELSKI, Józef, 19, farmer, from Boisko near Lipsko, Radom prov.

shot on Nov. 7, 1943, one of three, rendering help to Jews (see 283, 582)

75. CIEOLAK, Wojciech, living at Ł¹ka Szczucińska, Tarnów prov.

shot on Mar 21, 1943, for sheltering in his house a Jewess from Pacanów

76. CIOŁKOSZ, Feliks, 58, from Markuszowa, near Wioniowa, Rzeszów prov.

77. CIOŁKOSZ, (Christian name unknown), 50, his wife

78. CIOŁKOSZ, Jan, 26, their son shot in June 1943 by military police from Wioniowa, for helping Jews who took refuge in nearby woods (see 426)

79. CYPARSKA, Stefania Janina, 25, from Wydrna, Krosno prov.

80. CYPARSKI, Alfred Fryderyk, 6, son

81. CYPARSKA, Stanis³awa, 3, daughter

82. CYPARSKI, Tadeusz, 6 months, son murdered in March 1944 for help to Jews, rendered by Stefania

83. CYPARSKI, Wojciech, 30 living at Krzemienna, Krosno prov.

shot in early March 1944 by Gestapo for helping Jews and Soviet POW

84. CZAPLA, Stanis³aw, 30. farmer, living in Owiesielice, Radom prov.

murdered on Dec. 7, 1942, by gendarmes from Ciepiałów, for help to Jews. Together with him died: Bronis³aw Dobroń, Stanis³aw Nowotnik, Marianna Skwira, Wojciech Skrzak and members of Wdowiak and of Wojewódka families (see: 102, 403, 557, 561, 638-640, 660-665)

85. CZERSKA, Janina Wanda, 56, living in Warsaw sheltered 7 Jews in her house in Milanówek: Jadwiga Mińska, whose husband had been killed in Katyń, and 6 others, known only by their assumed names: the couple Cholewiński and their 2 sons and the couple Kordoński. In fall of 1943 five of them were arrested and their fate is unknown. Janina Wanda arrested with them, was transferred from the Pawiak prison to Auschwitz, where she died on Feb. 20, 1944

86. CZERWONKA, Franciszek, 56, farmer, from Paw³osiów, near Jaros³aw. Rzeszów prov.

87. CZERWONKA, Julia, 55, his wife

88. CZERWONKA, Stanis³aw, 18, son shot on July 1943, by Gestapo for sheltering Jews.

89. DŹBOWSKI, Krzysztof, 44, farmer, from D³ugo³êka, near Knyszyn, Bia³ystok murdered on May 5, 1945, in connection with the sheltering of 7 Jews from Knyszyn since September 1942. They were: Ber S³odki with his wife Fruma, their daughter Szosza and son-in-law Abram Krawiec, rabbi; Gerson Krawiec, his wife Lenta and their son, Szmuel. All of them left Poland after the war. D¹bowski was killed by bandits who demanded large sums of money from him, which, they thought, he must have earned for sheltering Jews. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among Nations"

90. DŹBROWSKA, Maria, headmistress of the school in W³odzimierz Wo³yński

(town incorporated after the war into the Ukraine)

Though known before the war for her antisemitic views, she began sheltering Jews in her home, following the German occupation in 1941.

18 people were found in her villa in April 1944, including a paralysed old woman, an invalid without a leg and a blind girl. Tortured by Gestapo, she did not reveal the identity of those who had been helping her, and she was shot with the people she had been sheltering.

91. DABROWSKI, Boles³aw, farmer, from Samoklêski, Near Kamionka, Lublin pr

having sheltered more than 12 Jews in his home and on his farm, he was shot together with the Jews during a raid organized by the German military police on the village, on Jan. 31, 1943

92. DŹBOWSKI, Marcin, from Cisie, near Ceg³ów. Siedlce prov.

killed by the military police, together with 24 other Poles from the village of Cisie, for sheltering Jews (see 9)

93. DEC, Bronis³aw, from Hadle Szklarskie, near Kańczuga, Przemyol prov.

94. DEC, Stanis³aw, brother

95. DEC, Tadeusz, brother
96. DEC, W³adys³aw, brother, living at Panta³owice, near Kańczuga
 The Dec brothers, together with other inhabitants of Panta³owice and Hadle Szklarskie, helped and provided food to Jews who were hiding in the surrounding woods. One of the latter, Malka Szinfeld, who was captured by the Nazis, unable to withstand the investigation to which they subjected her, gave away the names of the Poles who were helping them. On Dec. 4, 1942 were detained and executed beside the Dec brothers: Zofia Kubicka, Zofia and Jakub Kuszek, Emilia and Wincenty Lewandowski (see: 293, 315-316, 327-328)
97. DENEKO, Jadwiga (born SAŁEK) 32, living in Warsaw took care of many fugitives from the Warsaw ghetto, thus cooperating with Ludomir Marczak. Arrested on Nov. 25, 1943, together with the sheltered Jewish family, shot on Jan. 6, 1944 in the ghetto ruins. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations" (see: 367) 98. DÊBEK, Wiktoria, 40, living at Czernie, near Garwolin, Siedlce prov.
 murdered by Gestapo on June 29, 1942, together with 11 Jews of unknown identity, sheltered on her property
99. DÊBSKA, Emilia, living in Ko³omyja (incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)
100. DÊBSKA's housekeeper (identity unknown) sheltered 11 people of Jewish origin, including the family of the dentist Gottfryd and the 3 members of the family Karpel. These last managed to escape, but all others were shot 101. DŁUGOPOLSKI, W³adys³aw, 35, from Spytkowice, near Oowiêcim, Cracow arrested on Jan. 14, 1943 for help rendered to Jews, jailed at Zakopane, later transferred to the P³aszów camp and then to the Montelupich prison in Cracow, shot there on May 28, 1944 102. DOBRONŃ, Bronis³aw, 28, farmer, living at Owiesielice, Radom prov.
 murdered on Dec. 7, 1942, in a group of 14 Poles by gendarmes from Ciepielów, for help rendered to Jews (see: 84) 103. DOMAGAŁA, Piotr, living at Dobra, near Pilica, Katowice prov.
 shot by the military police in autumn 1942, together with the sheltered Jews, incl. the mother Kajla born Janic. His wife managed to escape
104. DOMAŃSKI, Piotr, 76, farmer, from Rz¹ęzew, near Zbuczyn, Siedlce prov.
105. DOMAŃSKI, Franciszek, 37, farmer, son
106. DOMAŃSKI, Antoni, 32, farmer, son shot by military police on Apr. 8, 1943 for sheltering Jews and partisans 107. DOMERADZKI, Jan, from Trêbaczew, near Sadkowice, Skierniewice prov.
 shot on Dec. 11, 1943 with his neighbours, the Szczepaniak family, for help to a Jewish family; the father of this family was also shot, but the fate of the remaining family members is unknown (see: 594-596)
108. DRŹG, Andrzej, 48, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów pr.
109. DRŹG, Wojciech, 42 shot on Mar. 13 in the village of Przewrotne in a group execution for Jews sheltering (see: 49-51)
110. DRŹG, Franciszek, 31, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski shot on June 10, 1943 in the village of Hucisko (see: 19-20) 111. DRYGA, Zygmunt, 54, from Paulinów, near Soko³ów Podlaski, Siedlce prov.
 shot at Paulinów by an SS unit on Feb. 24, 1943, together with a group of people, victims of a Nazi agent provocateur (see: 14)

112. DUDKIEWICZ, Aleksander, living at Gniazdowo, near Łochów. Siedlce prov.
killed in autumn at Gniazdowo with a Jewish fugitive, Frydman 113. DWORAK, Katarzyna, 60, from Hucisko, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów
114. DWORAK, Maria, 56
115. DWORAK, Micha³, 57
116. DWORAK, Anna, 30
117. DWORAK, Jan, 29
118. DWORAK, Anna, 21
119. DWORAK, Stefania, 16 killed on June 10, 1943 at Hucisko, in a group execution, for sheltering Jews (see: 19-20)
120. DWORAK, Zofia, 52, living at Przewrotne, near G³ogów Maopolski
121. DZIAK, Antoni, living at Bêdzienica, near Iwierzyszów prov. rrested and later executed on Oct. 27, 1943 for sheering 5 Jewish males:
3 young brothers Bendys, Faust, 30, and Meler, 40. Dziak's wife, Zofia, escaped.
122. FEDEROWICZ, Jakub, living at Kawêczyn, Skierniewice prov.
shot in the spring of 1944, for sheltering Abraham Rosenberg and his son, as well as other Jewish people. Also shot was Stanis³aw Trojanowski, his associate and the Jews, of which only one succeeded in getting away (see 616)23. FILIPEK, Katarzyna, 47, farmer, from Tokarnia, Nea Nowy Targ, Crow nurered in January 1944 by Germans following a denunciation; since June 1943 she sheltered 6 Jews: Samuel Szternlicht, his 2 daughters, son-in-law and 2 grandchildren, who died with her. She was posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations" 124. FIUTKOWSKI, Franciszek, living at Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Silce prov.
arrested and executed in a group execution on June 28, 1943, for help to Jewish people (see: 9) 125. FOŁTA, Szymon, living at Jankowice, near Ch³opice, Przemyol prov.
shot by the military police, together with 5 Jews he was sheltering: Jeremiah Nadel, Necha Nadel with her 7 years old daughter, Mila, and 2 seamstresses: Regina Amada, 28 and Dora Ring, 35 126. FORELLE. Maria, 61, living at Celestynów, near Otwock, Warsaw prov. shot on Mar. 31, 1944, with the Jewess whom she sheltered since the beginning of German occupation127. FURMANEK, Stanis³aw, living at Daleszyce, Kielce Prov.
executed in Kielce prison in summer of 1942, for transporting Jews by horse -and cart, in the company of Micha³ Malarecki, to the town of Chmielnik, where Jewish people might hide more safely (see: 356)
128. GACONŃ, Stanis³aw, living at Bukowa, near Jas³o, Tarnów prov.
129. GACONŃ, Apolonia, his wife shot on May 28, 1943, together with a 13 months Jewish girl shelterd by her 130. GAJDA, Grzegorz, farmer, from Grzegorzówka, near Łañcut, Rzeszów prov.
shot on Dec. 27, 1943, by SS officers from Łañcut, for helping Jews hiding in the nearby forst; toghther with them died Stefan Piechura (see 458) 131. GALEC, Maria, 50, living at Przeszkoda, near Ostrowiec Owiêtokrzyski, Kielce prov.
executed on Apr. 6, 1944, by the military police from Ostrowiec, for sheltering 2 Jewish males with first names Marian and Grzegorz, who also perished. The husband of Maria, Stanis³aw, not present at the time, was soon after arrested and sent to Auschwitz, from where he returned home seriously ill and died in 1946
132. GAŁAT, Jan, 30, farmer, living at Nasutów, near Niemce, Lublin prov.

Together with his wife, Marianna (from 1st marriage MAJCHRZAK) they sheltered 2 Jews Rozgold in their barn. On Nov. 20, 1942, the Jews were discovered by the military police and shot, while Jan was taken to Lubartów and hanged; his wife, being then in Lublin, survived.

133. GAŁGAN, Agnieszka, living at Sokołów Małopolski, Rzeszów prov.

executed in summer 1943 for sheltering Jewish women. Bartomiej Gielarowski, Karolina Marciniak and the Jews they were sheltering were killed also (see:144, 365)

134. GARLICKA, Zofia, MD, 68, living in Warsaw arrested on Aug. 11, 1942, for receiving in her home Dr. Natalia Zandowa, who escaped from the ghetto; Dr. Zandowa was shot the next day in the ghetto and Dr. Garlicka perished at Auschwitz, in November of that year.

135. GARNCAREK, Franciszek, priest, living in Warsaw

As priest of the St. Augustyn parish, bordering on the ghetto, he rendered help to its inhabitants, among other things, by communicating with the Polish underground AK (Home Army). On Dec. 20, 1943 he was murdered by Germans on the threshold of his presbitery

136. GAWEŁ, Michał, from Przewrotne, near Gogów Małopolski, Rzeszów prov.

killed in a mass execution on Mar 13, 1943 for sheltering Jews (see: 49-51)

137. GAWRON, Czesław, 20, living at Wola Przybysawska, Near Garbów, Lublin prov.

138. GAWRON, Leonard, 21, his brother murdered on Dec. 10, 1942, together with the Aftyka family for helping Jews (see: 3-6)

139. GAWRYCH, Jan, 50, forester from Czarna, near Mińsk Mazowiecki, Siedlce shot on Jan. 30, 1943, together with a group of Jews whom he helped, beside partisans and 2 fugitive Soviet POW. With them died also Stanisław Skuza and Dawid Rutkowski, cooperating with Gawrych (see: 526, 558)

140. GAWRYO, Piotr, 20, living at Połomia, near Tarnów, Rzeszów prov.

murdered on Sep. 9, 1943, together with 8 other Poles, sheltering Jews

141. GYSIOR, Aleksander, farmer, living at Cisie, near Cegów, Siedlce prov.

142. GERGERA, Henryk, farmer

both were shot on June 28, 1943, in a group of 25 people for help organized by the village to the Jews (see: 9)

143. GERULA, Michał, farmer, living at Łozinka Dolna, Cracow prov.

shot on Feb. 23, 1944, sentenced to death by a special court order of the SS and police commander in Cracow for sheltering Jews

144. GIELAROWSKI, Bartomiej, from Trzebuska, near Sokołów Małopolski, Rzeszów prov.

shot in summer 1943 together with Karolina Marciniak, for sheltering 5 Jews from Sokołów Małopolski (see: 133)

145. GŁONIAK, Walenty, 50, living at Biała, near Tęczyn, Rzeszów prov.

146. GŁONIAK, Józef, son

shot on Oct. 15, 1943, together with 3 Jews from Tęczyn, sheltered by them

147. GNIDUŁA, Józef, 70, farmer, from Majdan Nowy, near Księżpol, Zamooæ pr.

shot on Dec. 29, 1942, with his cousin, Anna Margol, for sheltering a Jewish woman Baruch (first name unknown). The last being captured and beaten by the military police, and being promised her life, gave away the names of people who sheltered and helped her. As a result perished also: Katarzyna and Józef Kowal, Anastazja and Maria Łubiarz and Kazimierz Szabata. Boruch was killed also. (see: 262-263, 344-345, 370, 592)

148. GOLA, Andrzej, 41, from Przewrotne, near Gogów Małopolski, Rzeszów pr.

- shot on May 9, 1943, with 15 other inhabitants for hiding Jews (see 70-71)
149. GOLEŃ, Eleonora, living at Jas³o, Krosno prov.
 shot together with another Pole in 1943 by German police and SS for sheltering a 12 years old Jewish boy, who died with them 150. GRABOWSKA, Irena, living at Piastów, Warsaw prov.
 she was sheltering from April 1942 a small group of Jews, while helping many others. Together with her mother she gave refuge to the family Mortkowicz, publishers and booksellers from Warsaw. Arrested on Feb. 7, 1944 she was shot after a brutal questioning, on Ap. 26 of that year.
151. GRABOWSKI, Marian, living in Kowel (town incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine) shot in November 1943 with the Jewish woman he was sheltering 152. GRANAT, Antoni, 38, living at Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.
 killed on May 9, 1943, with 15 villagers for sheltering Jews (see: 70-71)
153. GRUCHAŁA, Anna, living at D¹browa Tarnowska, Tarnów prov.
154. GRUCHAŁA, Julia, her daughter-in-law
 Anna was killed with 7 Jews: Szyfer, sheltered by them , by gendarmes in summer of 1944 in her own home; Julia was sent to Bergen-Belsen camp where she died
155. GRZESIK, Ferdynand, living in Warsaw arrested on July 3, 1942, for working as an advisor in diversive and sabotage tactics in the ghetto, on orders from the Polish socialist underground. He was hanged on Leszno St. in Warsaw on Oct. 15, 1942 156. GRZESZCZYK, (Christian name unknown), from Zaj¹czkó, near Ciepiałów, Radom prov.
 killed with a number of other villagers from Zaj¹czków and Tymienica by military police, for help to Jewish refugees (see: 320-322)
157. GRZYB, Jan, 80, farmer, living at Wiewiórka, near Dêbica, Tarnów prov
158. GRZYB, Jadwiga 80, his wife murdered by Gestapo from Dêbica, for sheltering Jews 159. GRZYWNOWICZ, Franciszek, 22, from Przec³aw, near Miechów, Kielce pr.
160. GRZYWNOWICZ, Józef, 23, brother killed on Aug. 27, 1943, for sheltering a Jewish family of 5
161. GUT, Adam, 30, living at Hucisko, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.
162. GUT, Józef, 21
163. GUT, Marcin, 46 killed on Jun.10, 1943, for helping Jews sheltered in the village (see: 19-20) 164. GUT, Ludwik, 38, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.
 killed on May 9, 1943, in a mass execution for sheltering Jews (see: 70-71) 165. HANAS, Miko³aj, living at Zagórze, near Sanok, Krosno prov.
 shot in March 1943 by Bahnschutzpolizei with the Jews he sheltered: Lew Bank and Elias Margolis 166. HENDOSZKO, Stanis³aw, from Paulinów, near Soko³ów Podlaski, Siedlce pr.
 shot on Feb. 24, 1943, while digging trenches, as one of the 14 people, victims of a Nazi agent provocateur (see: 14)
167. HOLTZER, Józef, 69, landowner, at Celestynów, near Rachanie, Lublin pr.
168. HOLTZER, Marianna, 61, his wife

killed by military policemen from Rachanie on Nov. 2, 1942, for trying to protect 12 Jews, by employing them legally on their lands, killed with them¹⁶⁹. INGLOT, Zofia, living at Wola Kamborska, near Krosno shot in Oct. 1943 by the SS for sheltering 2 Jews; died also Janina Kwolek, Józef and Katarzyna Prejzner and both sheltered Jews (see: 319, 481-482)

170. IRZEK, Julia, living in Lwów (city incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)

sentenced to death by a special court (Sondergericht) for helping Jews, announced by public notice by the commander of the SS and the Galician district police on Dec. 14, 1943

171. IWAŃSKI, Roman, living in Warsaw

as soldier of the AK he fought together with members of the Jewish Military Union (ŻW) during the Warsaw Ghetto uprising and was shot on Apr. 27, 1943, on Plac Muranowski

172. IWAŃSKI, Zbigniew, living in Warsaw

as member of the AK he fought against the German troops on Karmelicka Str. Perished on May 3, 1943, while conducting 15 Jews from the burning Ghetto

173. IZDEBSKI, Mieczysław, 28, farmer from Zienki, near Włodawa, Lublin prov.

murdered in spring of 1943, together with the Kupersztok family of 5: Nata, her husband and 3 children, aged 10-18. Neighbours saved the 3 years old daughter of Izdebski

174. JABŁKOWSKA, Helena, from the Polish Socialist Party, living in Warsaw

she sheltered many Jews, incl. the Bardach family, for which she was arrested on Jan. 6, 1944 and shot soon after

175. JAJEONICA, Józef, living at Kałuża, former Stanisławów (town incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine)

176. JAJEONICA, Maria, his wife

177. JAJEONICA, Jan, 10, son

Maria, owner of a brick-yard, allowed 4 Jews who escaped from a transport, to take shelter in a building on her property. Pursuing Germans forced all 7 of them into the building and burnt them alive

178. JAKUBOWSKA, Walentyna, farmer, from Popów, near Brańsk, Bielsk prov.

murdered on Apr. 12, 1943 by gendarmes from Brańsk; with her died the two Jewish children: Lejb, 11 and Fajwel, 13, Doliński, protected by her

179. JANICZEK, Jan, 46, living in Warsaw employee of the (PKO) Polish Savings Bank, he gave shelter in his home to the Jew Grossman. Both arrested and perished in Gross-Rosen camp, Janiczek on Dec. 4, 1944

180. JANTOŃ, Jan, 31 from Wola Brzostocka, near Brzostek, Tarnów prov.

he supplied food to the Fish family of 6, which was hiding in the woods: mother, Henia 60, daughters Baily, 23, and her baby-girl, Rosa, 26, Ester, 28, and son Moses, 30. All were killed on Dec. 8, 1942 and buried in a common grave in the wood. Jantoni was awarded posthumously with the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"

181. JANUS, Helena, 40, wife of Bronisław, living at Dzwonowice, near Pilica, Katowice prov.

182. JANUS, Maria, daughter

183. JANUS, Krzysztof, 3, son

Helena and her husband Bronisław sheltered two Jewish families: Berliński and Rusinek, 6 people. On Jan. 12, 1945 military police and Gestapo discovered the Jews and killed everyone present, incl. Bronisław's sister, Zofia Madej, her husband and her daughter. Only Bronisław, absent at that time, escaped with life (see 351-353)

184. JAROSZYŃSKI, Bronis³aw, living at Stryj (locality incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine) sentenced to death "for conspiring with Jews" by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Galician District Police (Standgericht) Public announcement dated: Jan. 28, 1944 185. JASIŃSKI, Antoni, living in Warsaw shot together with the Jewish couple (he an enginner, she a dentist) to whom he gave refuge in his flat; the tragedy resulted from the dentist's insufficient caution in selecting patients she treated.
186. JAWORSKA, Rozalia, living at Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov.
187. JAWORSKA, (Christian name unknown) 2, daughter shot on June 28, 1943 at Ceg³ów in a group of 25 people for sheltering Jews (see: 9) 188. JELONEK, Józef, living at Zaj¹czków, near Ciepiałów, Radom prov.
shot in January 1943 with the family of Gabriel Wo³owiec for helping Jews (see: 668-673)
189. JEW¹TUSIK, Opanas, living in Lwów (city incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine) sentenced to death by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Galician District Police (Standgericht) for helping Jews. Public announcement dated: Jan. 28, 1944.
190. JÊDRZEJCZYK, Józef, 27, farmer, living at Matysówka, near Rzeszów for help rendered to Jews shot on Oct. 15, 1943 by Gestapo from Tyczyn 191. JÊDRZEJEWSKI, Józef, 27, living at Matysówka, near Rzeszów shot on Oct. 15, 1943 at Tyczyn in a group of Poles, some of whom brought from surrounding localities, and given the death sentence for helping Jews (see: 211, 443)
192. JOÆ, Jan, 61, farmer, living at Mêtów, near Lublin
193. JOÆ, Jadwiga, 57, his wife murdered in November 1943 for supplying food to Jews hiding in forest 194. JÓZEFEK, Bronis³aw, living in Lwów (city now in the Soviet Ukraine)
195. JÓZEFEK, Kazimierz
196. JÓZEFEK, Maria
sentenced to death by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Galician District Police for sheltering Jews . Their names were published in official announcements issued on Dec. 14, 1943 and Jan. 28, 1944
197. JUSZCZYK, Franciszek, 55, living at Biaobrzegi, Radom prov.
198. JUSZCZYK, Wiktoria, 45, his wife
199. JUSZCZYK, Stefan, 23, son
200. JUSZCZYK, Weronika, 20, daughter
201. JUSZCZYK, Boles³aw, 17, son
202. JUSZCZYK, Helena, 15, daughter arrested in September 1942 at Bia³obrzegi, together with 5 Jews sheltered by them; all have been shot at Zwoleń in the same month from Rekówka and Ciepiałów, for sheltering Jews; among others the entire Kosior family whom she visited at that time (see: 243-256) 218. KLUBA, Stanis³aw, living at Kamyk, near Łapanów, Tarnów prov.
sheltered 3 Jews, incl. Moses Landner and Irena Rajs; on Dec. 4, 1943, the military police discovered the hide-out; the Jewish fugitives were shot immediately, but Kluba on Jan. 20, 1944 only. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"
219. KMIEÆ, Anna Zofia, 51, living at Radgoszcz-Porêba, Tarnów prov.
220. KMIEÆ, Bronis³aw, 19, her son

- shot on Nov. 28, 1942 for sheltering Jews, incl. the son of a baker from Radgoszcz. Anna Zofia's baby grandchildren, Bronis³awa and Janina So³tys died also, as well as Tomasz and Bronis³awa Juzba (see: 203-204, 574-575)
221. KOGUT, Anna, living at D¹browa Tarnowska, Tarnów prov. shot by German gendarmes in September 1944, together with the Jewish Metzger family of 3 sheltered by her 222. KOLANO, Marcin, 36, from Hucisko, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów pr.
 killed in a mass execution on June 10, 1943, for sheltering Jews (see: 19-20)
223. KOLBUSZEWSKI, Kazimierz, 58, professor of the Lwów University (city incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine) arrested in 1942 for giving medical help to a Jewish woman, his housekeeper; he was murdered at Majdanek camp on Feb. 20, 1943 224. KOMARNICKA, Leokadia, professor's wife, living in Warsaw lead Jews out of the ghetto and sheltered them in her home or found them places of refuge, sharing with them all she had. When travelling to Łowicz to collect a debt owed to one of them, she has been betrayed as a "Jewish guardian" by the debtor and was shot by Gestapo 225. KONIECZNA, Natalia, living at Giebu³tów, near Ksi¹ę Wielki, Kielce prov.
226. KONIECZNA, (Christian name unknown) her daughter shot in May 1944, together with 7 unidentified Jews; her husband escaped 227. KOPACZ, Stanis³aw, farmer, living at Szynwald, Tarnów prov.
 sheltered from 1942 to 1944 several Jews. Discovered, he was shot with them during the pacification of Szynwald in August, 1944 228. KOPEÆ, Katarzyna, 58, living at Siedliska, near Miechów, Kielce prov.
 mother of Łucja Baranek, murdered with her whole family on Mar. 15, 1943 for sheltering 4 Jews who were killed also (see: 22-26) 229. KORDULA, Henryka, 13, living at Rekówka, near Ciepielów, Radom prov.
 executed on Dec. 6, 1942 by the military police, with 33 inhabitants from Rekówka and Ciepielów, for sheltering Jews; among others the entire Kosior family whom she visited at that time (see: 243-256)
230. KOSIARCZYK, Wiktoria, farmer, from Skrzynice, near Jab³onna, Lublin pr.
231. KOSIARCZYK, Andrzej, 28, farmer, her son
232. KOSIARCZYK, Katarzyna, 27, cousin shot on Oct. 9, 1943, at Bystrzejowice, in the house of Wiktoria's daughter Zofia and her husband, Roman Kucharski, who were sheltering 5 Jews. All 10 persons were killed (see: 299-300) 233. KOSIBA, Wojciech, 71, living at Hankówka, near Jas³o, Krosno prov.
 shot by gendarmes in June 1944, for help rendered to Ryfka and Salka Saul, also killed
234. KOSIELSKI, Franciszek, farmer, from Rzyczyn, near Garwolin, Siedlce prov.
235. KOSIELSKA, Katarzyna, his wife
236. KOSIELSKA, Bronis³awa, daughter
237. KOSIELSKA, Genowefa, daughter
238. KOSIELSKA, Leokadia, daughter,
239. KOSIELSKA, Zofia, daughter
240. KOSIELSKI, Czes³aw, son
241. KOSIELSKI, Lucjan, son
242. KOSIELSKI, Stanis³aw, son

the family sheltered Jews on their farm. The sons were members of People's Guard (GL) On Mar. 7, 1944 gendarmes during their search discovered the Jews and murdered them with the entire family

243. KOSIOR, W³adys³aw, 42, living at Ciepielów, Radom prov.

244. KOSIOR, Karolina 40, his wife

245. KOSIOR, Aleksander, 18, their son

246. KOSIOR, Tadeusz, 16, son

247. KOSIOR, W³adys³awa, 14, daughter

248. KOSIOR, Mieczys³aw, 12, son

249. KOSIOR, Irena, 10, daughter

250. KOSIOR, Adam, 6, son

251. KOSIOR Stanis³aw, 40, living at Rekówka, near Ciepielów

252. KOSIOR, Maria 27, Stanis³aw's wife

253. KOSIOR, Jan, 8, their son

254. KOSIOR, Mieczys³aw, 5, son

255. KOSIOR, Marian, 4, son

256. KOSIOR, Teresa, 3, daughter on Dec. 6, 1942 the military police burnt alive 33 people from the neighbouring villages of Ciepielów and Rekówka. They have been denounced by members of the Volksdeutsch community of sheltering Jews.

Tadeusz Kosior tried to escape from the burning barn, but was pursued and thrown back into the flames. Other 3 families: Obuchiewicz, Kowalski, and Skoczylas, as well as other Poles and the sheltered Jews all perished in the massacre (see: 229, 257, 267-273, 405-410, 553-554)

264. KOWALCZYK, Jan, 43, farmer, living at Podborek, Radom prov.

265. KOWALCZYK, Stefania, 26, his wife

266. KOWALCZYK, Jan, 2, son shot on July 11, 1943, by gendarmes on the charge of helping Jews. Together with them died Marianna Ambroży and Katarzyna Szepietowska with her son, who were visiting them (see: 7, 598-599)

267. KOWALSKI, Adam, 47, farmer, living at Ciepielów, Radom Prov.

268. KOWALSKI, Bronis³awa, 40, his wife

269. KOWALSKA, Janina, 16, daughter

270. KOWALSKA, Zofia, 12, daughter

271. KOWALSKI, Stefan, 6, son

272. KOWALSKI, Henryk, 4, son

273. KOWALSKI, Tadeusz, 1, son

on Dec. 6, 1942, in the midst of a massacre of 33 people, carried out by military police at Ciepielów, the family were shut in the Obuchiewicz family's house and set on fire, as a reprisal for help to Jews. (see: 243-256, 	405-410)

274. KOZAK, Gierasim, farmer, from Starzyna, near Hajnówka, Bia³ystok prov.

in late November 1943, was taken by gendarmes, with 4 Jews sheltered by him, into the forest and shot

275. KOZAK, Sebastian, 73, farmer living at Brzoza Królewska, near Leżajsk, Rzeszów prov

276. KOZAK, Katarzyna, 66, his wife were shot on Mar. 23, 1943, by gendarmes from Leżajsk for sheltering several Jews. All were killed together with Tomasz Wach (see: 628)

277. KRASUSKA, Zofia, living at Tworki, near Wi³niewo, Siedlce prov.

278. KRASUSKI, Stanis³aw, 5, her son shot by gendarmes on Feb. 13, 1943, with 7 Jews sheltered by Zofia 279. KRAWCZYK, Józef, 35, farmer, living at Boisko, near Lipsko, Radom prov.
280. KRAWCZYK, Zofia, 33, his wife
281. KRAWCZYK, Adam, 9, their son shot on their farm on Jan. 2, 1943 for help to Jews. Their farm was burnt down. At the same time died to Borycki family (see: 44-46)
282. KRUSZKOWSKA, Maria, living in Lwów (city now in the Soviet Ukraine)
 sentenced to death by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Galician District Police for sheltering Jews; public notice of Dec. 14, 1943 283. KRYCZKA, Leon, 41, farmer, living at Boisko, near Lipsko, Radom prov.
 shot on Nov. 7, 1943 with 2 other persons for help to Jews. See: 74-582)
284. KRYCZKA, Wiktoria, 40, shot a day later (Nov. 8, 1943)
285. KRYSIEWICZ, Stanis³aw, farmer, from Waniewo, near Narew, Bia³ystok pr.
286. KRYSIEWICZ, W³adys³awa, 37, his wife shot by military police from Tykocin, in September 1943, for sheltering Jews: Leyser Ró^zanowicz and his wife, Benjamin Ró^zanowicz and his wife, Shloma Jaskó³ka and his wife, Olsha from Soko³y and a young Warsaw woman, all of whom perished also. 5 young Krysiewicz children were taken into the homes of neighbours 287. KRZYSZTANIAK, W³adys³aw, living at Faliszówka, Krosno prov.
 killed on Nov. 21, 1943, with 2 Jewish women and a child, 5 years old Siedlce prov.
288. KSI¹ĘK, Boles³aw, farmer, from Olesin, near Dêbe Wielkie, Siedlce prov.
 shot on May 12, 1943 by military police together with the Jewish fugitive, named Idel, sheltered in his house
289. KSI¹ĘK, Franciszek, 50, living at Wierzbica, near Koz³ów, Kielce prov.
290. KSI¹ĘK, Julia, 40, his wife
291. KSI¹ĘK, Jan, 21, son
292. KSI¹ĘK, Zygmunt, 18, son shot on Jan. 29, 1943, with 2 other families for hiding the 3 Jews Wandelsmans, killed with them. The fugitives'son-in-law, Naftul, captured and beaten, informed about their hide-out. (see: 294-298, 401-402, 439) 293. KUBICKA, Zofia, living at Pantalowice, near Kańczuga, Przemy¹l prov.
 shot on Dec. 4, 1942, with her parents and other villagers, for helping a group of about 12 local Jews, hidden in nearby woods (see: 93-96)
294. KUCHARSKA, Anna, living at Wierzbica, near Koz³ów, Kielce prov.
295. KUCHARSKI, Mieczys³aw, 15, son
296. KUCHARSKI, Boles³aw, 9, son
297. KUCHARSKI, Józef, 7, twin son
298. KUCHARSKI, Stefan, 7, twin son shot on Jan. 29, 1943, by military police, with the Ksi¹ęk and Nowak families and 2 Jewish fugitives from the Wandelsman family. Survived the massacre: Kucharski Izydor, father, and Bronis³aw, 13, son, who regained consciousness, but lost completely his sight, while Izydor lost an eye Anna's mother, Julianna Ostrowska, was shot with the Kucharskis. The Wandelsmans' son-in-law, tortured, gave out their shelter (see: 289-292, 439)
299. KUCHARSKI, Roman, 31, living at Bystrzejowice, near Piaski, Lublin
300. KUCHARSKA, Zofia, 23, his wife killed by military police on Oct. 9, 1943, in their own house, for sheltering Jews, killed while trying to escape. Andrzej, Katarzyna and Wiktoria Kosiarczyk were also executed.

- The 5 years old son of Andrzej and Wiktoria, as result of injuries remained an invalid for the rest of his life. The house and all the farm buildings were burnt together with the livestock. (see: 230-232)
301. KUCHARSKI Stanisław, 53, from Dębska Wola, near Starachowice, Kielce prov sentenced to death by a special court in Radom, on May 7, 1943, on the grounds that "a certain Jewish woman, who escaped from the ghetto, was sheltered in his house". The sentence was carried out on Sep. 25, 1943.
302. KUFTA, Anna, living in Lwów (city now incorporated into the Ukraine)
sentenced to death by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Galician District Police for sheltering Jews; public notice of Jan 28, 1944
303. KUPIS, Piotr, living at Chotel Czerwony, near Wiślica, Kielce prov.
304. KUPIS, Bronisława, his wife shot in spring 1943 on their property by military policemen from Nowy Korczyn, for sheltering 3 Jews. The 3 Kupis 3 children survived 305. KUR, Zofia, 43, living at Gamratka, near Mińsk Mazowiecki, Siedlce prov.
306. KUR, Aleksander, 17, her son shot on July 27, 1943 by military police from Mińsk Mazowiecki together with the the 3 Jews sheltered by them 307. KURIATA, Józef, 59, farmer, living at Warówka, near Kostopol (after the war in the Soviet Ukraine)
308. KURIATA, Franciszka, 56, his wife sheltered Shiya Fleisch, a Jewish boy found in the woods. On April 13, 1943 the German police carried out a housesearch. The boy was not found, but the police barricaded the Kuriatas in their house and set fire to it, and to all farm buildings. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"
309. KURPIEL, Stanisław, living at Leoncin, near Krasieczyn, Przemyśl prov.
310. KURPIEL, Franciszka, his wife killed with a group of Jews from Przemyśl, living in an underground shelter near their house: the families Rubinfeld, Golinger and Spiegel. One of the 9;sheltered managed to escape
311. KUSIAK, (Christian name unknown), wife of Wojciech, living at Lipowiec, near Zwierzyniec, Zamość prov.
312. KUSIAK, (Christain name unknown), 21, son of Wojciech
313. KUSIAK, (Christian name unknown) 6, son of Wojciech shot by military police with Katarzyna Rybak and some Jewish fugitives. The hideout was given away by one of the last, tortured by the Germans. Wojciech and a 3rd son, not present at the time, escaped (see: 531)
314. KUSIAK, Stanisław, living at Paulinów, near Sokołów Podlaski, Siedlce prov.
killed after Feb. 24, 1943 in Treblinka camp, as one of 14 Poles victims of a provocation, weeks earlier (see: 14)
315. KUSZEK, Jakub, living at Pantalowice, near Kańczuga, Przemyśl prov.
316. KUSZEK, Zofia, his wife shot on Dec. 4, 1942 for helping and supplying food to Jews hiding in the woods; their daughter, Zofia Kubicka and other villagers also died 318. KWIATOSZ, Bolesław, 30, farmer, from Skrzynice near Jabłonna, Lublin pr.
killed on Sep. 3, 1943 with a 15 years old boy, Chaim, sheltered by him
319. KWOLEK, JANINA, 17, living at Wola Komborska, near Krosno

- shot by SS officers in Oct. 1943, together with 3 other Poles for sheltering 2 Jews, also killed (see: 169)
320. LASEK, Jan, living at Tymienica, near Chotcza, Radom prov.
321. LASEK, Eugenia, 12, his granddaughter
322. LASEK, Zdzisław, 14, his grandson shot at the turn of 1942, together with Józef Rutkowski from Tymienica and Grzeszczyk and Lelunek from Zajczków, for help offered to Jews (see: 156, 326, 529) 323. LASKA, Paweł, 48, living at Przewrotne, near Gogów Małopolski, Rzeszów prov.
 shot on May 9, 1943, in a group of 16 Poles for sheltering Jews (see: 70-71)
324. LATERNER, Rena, over 70, living in Warsaw during the Ghetto Uprising she and Janina Pawczyńska helped Jewish insurgents and passed letters from them to the Polish underground. Following the fall of the ghetto, the 2 women hid 10 insurgents in a shelter they built themselves. Discovered all 12 people were executed (see: 472) 325. LAZAR, Józef, living at Osobnica, near Krosno shot on Jan. 20, 1943 for sheltering 2 Jews who were also killed and a Jewish woman, who managed to escape. Lazar's wife, Maria was sent to Auschwitz 326. LELUNEK, (Christian name unknown) living at Zajczków, near Ciepeliów, Radom prov.
 shot with 5 people, at the turn of 1942 for help to Jews (see: 320-322)
327. LEWANDOWSKI, Wincenty, from Pantalowice, near Kańczuga, Przemyśl pr.
328. LEWANDOWSKA, Emilia, his wife shot on Dec. 4, 1942 at Pantalowice for help to Jews hiding in the woods and for sheltering them temporarily in their home. A number of villagers were killed with them (see: 93-96)
329. LIBROWSKA, Franciszka, over 60, from Kietlin, near Radomsko, Piotrków prov.
330. LIBROWSKI, Władysław, 35, her son shot by military police in November 1943 together with 8 Jews hiding in their barn: families Chęciński and Bugajski. Killed also was Gerwazy Bańkowski, sheltering 2 of them (see: 33)
331. LIGAS, Franciszek, living at Bystra, Nowy Sącz prov.
 Adolf Synaj in search of shelter with Ligas, was shot by Germans in July 1943. Ligas got away, but soon was caught and died in Montelupich prison in Cracow 332. LIPIŃSKI, Tadeusz, living at Cisie, near Cegów, Siedlce prov.
 shot on June 28, 1943 in a group of 25 Poles for sheltering Jews (see: 9)
333. LUBKIEWICZ, Leon, 59, baker at Sadowne, Siedlce prov.
334. LUBKIEWICZ, Maria, 44, his wife
335. LUBKIEWICZ, Stefan, 25, son shot by military police on Jan. 13, 1943 for supplying bread to Jewish women: Elż and Czapkiewicz from Sadowne, who were killed later 336. ŁODEJ, Wojciech, living at Lubień, near Rozprza, Piotrków prov.
337. ŁODEJ, Marianna, his wife killed at Lubień on Dec. 14, 1942 by military police from Iża, for saving Jews, incl. Chil Brawermann 338. ŁODEJ, Władysław, 38, farmer, son of Wojciech and Marianna
 coorganized a camp for the Kutera forest-range for about 40 Jews from Iża, whom he supplied with food; he was killed on Dec. 31, 1942

339. ŁODEJ, Wiktoria, W³adys³aw's wife
343. ŁODEJ, Edward, 14, son
341. ŁODEJ, Janina, 12, daughter
342. ŁODEJ, W³adys³aw, 8, son
343. ŁODEJ, Stanis³aw, 6, son
- The entire family was arrested at Lubieñ on Dec. 21, 1942 and killed in the forest near I³ęza 344. ŁUBIARZ, Anastazja, 43, farmer, living at Majdan Nowy, Near Kięcpol, Zamo³łæ prov.
345. ŁUBIARZ, Maria, 76, Anastazja's mother-in-law killed on Dec. 29, 1942 by military policemen from Bi³goraj, for sheltering Jews; they were betrayed by a young woman under their care, tortured by Germans and promised her life. The husband and son of Anastazja hid themselves. All the farm buildings were burnt down (see: 147) 346. ŁUCZYK, Gabriel, farmer, living at Łopuszka Wielka, near Przeworsk, Przemy³ł prov. shot in autumn of 1943 together with 7 Jews, hiding in the nearby forest since 1942, whom he helped 347. ŁUKACZ, Eugeniusz, chemist, living at Lutowiska, Krosno prov.
348. ŁUKACZ, Janina, his wife arrested in the middle of 1943 for helping 3 Jewish families: Luterman, Rand and Fish. Eugeniusz died in Dachau camp, Janina in Tarnów prison 349. MACHUL, Jan, farmer, living at Cezaryn, near Pu³awy, Lublin prov.
shot on July 3, 1943, together with 2 Jews he was sheltering 350. MACHULSKI, Jan, living at Schabojewo, near Zawidz, P³ock prov.
killed by military police on May 8, 1942 at Schabojewo for sheltering 3 Jewish women: Choma Dyga³a, Alka Alterowicz and Ida Alterowicz 351. MADEJ, Mieczys³aw, living at Dzwonkowice, near Pilica, Katowice prov.
352. MADEJ, Zofia, his wife
353. MADEJ, Krystyna, 2, daughter killed by Germans on Jan. 12, 1943 in the house of Zofia's brother, Bronis³aw Janus, with his family and 6 sheltered Jews (see: 181-183)
354. MADUZIA, Józef, living at Jaworzne Dolne, near Pilzno, Tarnów prov.
shot by Gestapo and soldiers of Wehrmacht in a group of 4 farmers and 6 sheltered Jews (see: 208)
355. MAJKUT, Antoni, farmer, living at Grodzisko Górne, Cracow prov.
sentenced to death for sheltering Jews; verdict passed by the special court of the SS and police commander in Cracow, pronounced on Feb. 23, 1944 356. MALARECKI, Micha³, living at Daleszyce, Kielce prov.
arrested in summer 1943 for transporting Jews, together with Stanis³aw Furmanek, from Daleszyce to Chmielnik; he died following torture in prison (see: 127)
357. MALEWSKA, Wiktoria, from Lwów (city incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine) sentenced to death for helping Jews; public notice of the commander of the SS and the Galician District Police of Dec. 14, 1943
358. MALCZEWSKI, Jan, living at Dobroszyce, near Radomsko, Piotrków prov.
shot at Dobroszyce on Dec. 20, 1943, with Zygmunt Kaczmarek and the Jews they sheltered: Abraham Ze³kowicz and his 10 years old son (see: 205)
359. MALICKA, Maria, civil servant at the Census Office, living in Warsaw
360. MALICKI, (Christian name unknown) her husband, also civil servant there perished at Treblinka, sent there at the end of 1942 or beginning of 1943, for supplying, with the help of a parish priest, false documents to Jews, incl.

Maria Reichenbach and her sister. The parish priest has also been killed

361. MAŁUS, Zygmunt, living at Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov.

shot on June 28, 1943 in a group of 25 Poles for help to Jews (see: 9)

362. MAŃKOWSKI, Tadeusz, 30, living in Warsaw sheltered with his son, Zdzis³aw, the Jewish boxer Shapshi Rotholz, his wife Maria and their son Ryszard. Denounced, perished in spring 1944, with Maria Ratholz; the others succeeded to escape. Tadeusz was awarded posthumously the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"

365. MARCINIEC, Karolina, from Trzebuska, near Soko³ów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.

shot in summer 1943, with Agnieszka Ga³gan, Bart³omiej Gielarowski and 5 Jewish fugitives from Soko³ów (see: 133)

366. MARCISZCZUK, Jan, 60, farmer, living at Szczurowice, Tarnopol prov.

together with his wife, Anna and his son Piotr, he hid in a special shelter 4 Jews: Mendel Friedman with his son Izak and Klara Hart with her 6 years old son, all of whom survived and after the war emigrated. But Marciszczuk was murdered in 1945 by Ukrainian nationalists. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"

More names of Polish Rescuers Killed While Helping Jews

400. NOWAK, (Christian name unknown) his daughter killed on June 22, 1943, for Teofil's involvment in aiding Jewish people. Maria and Stanis³aw Wierzbanowski, Z³ebala (no first name) and Katarzyna ⁻nuda with her children, were shot at the same time (see: 644-645, 698, 702-704)

401. NOWAK, (Christian name unknown) from Wierzbica, near Koz³ów, Kielce pr

402. NOWAK, (Christian name unknown), daughter shot on Jan. 29, 1943 for sheltering the Wandelsman family, also killed (see: 289-292)

403. NOWOTNIK, Stanis³aw, 45, farmer, living at [!]wiesielice, Radom prov.

murdered on Dec. 7, 1942 in a group of 14 people by gendarmes from ;Ciepielów for help given to Jews (see: 84)

404. NOYSZEWSKA, Ewa, Mother Superior of the convent of the Immaculate Conception, S³onim (place incorporated after the war into Soviet Ukraine)

shot in 1941 with sister Marta Wo³owska for sheltering Jews in the nunnery (see: 674)

405. OBUCHIEWICZ, Piotr, 58, living at Ciepielów, Radom prov.

406. OBUCHIEWICZ, Helena, 35, his wife

407. OBUCHIEWICZ, W³adys³aw, 6, son

408. OBUCHIEWICZ, Zofia, 3, daughter

409. OBUCHIEWICZ, Janina, 2, daughter

410. OBUCHIEWICZ (Christian name unknown), 7 month old baby died on Dec. 6, 1942 when military police burned alive 33 villagers from Ciepielów and Rekówka, for sheltering Jews (see: 267-273)

411. OCHMIŃSKI, (Christian name unknown) living at Wola Przybys³awska, near Garbów, Lublin prov burned alive on Dec. 10, 1942 with 4 members of his family in a mass execution carried out at the village where Jews were sheltered (see: 3-6)

412. OLESIUK, Wojciech, 53, farmer, from Chominna, near Łomazy, Bia³a Podlaska prov.

413. OLESIUK, Stefania, 40, his wife

414. OLESIUK, Piotr, 14, son
 415. OLESIUK, Stefan, 9, son
 416. OLESIUK, Szymon, 3, son shot on Nov. 7, 1943 at Chominna village by military police from Wisznice for sheltering a Jew, who also perished 417. OLSZEWSKA, Maria, 42, living at Skórnice, near Końskie, Kielce prov.
 418. OLSZEWSKA Janina, 30, wife of Henryk
 419. OLSZEWSKA, Krystyna, 9, Janina's daughter
 420. OLSZEWSKA, Zofia, 1, Janina's daughter
 421. OLSZEWSKI, Bogdan, 2, Janina's son
 422. OLSZEWSKI, Jan, 5, Janina's son
 423. OLSZEWSKI, Marian, 10, Maria's son
 424. OLSZEWSKI, Leon, 19, Maria's son
 425. OLSZEWSKI, Henryk, 33, Maria's step-son
 On April 16, 1943 Germans discovered 11 members of the Weintraub family sheltered by the Olszewskis in a specially built dug-out. Henryk and Leon were taken by the police and their fate is unknown. The other 7 members of the family were killed in their house 426. OPAROWSKI, Stanisław, 46, living at Wiśniowa, Rzeszów prov.
 shot by gendarmes with a group of people in June 1943 at Markuszowa village for rendering help to Jews hiding in the forest (see: 76-78, 467, 608, 694)
427. ORGANIĆCIAK, Adam, 63, from Przewrotne, near Gogów Małopolski, Rzeszów prov.
 428. ORGANIĆCIAK, Wojciech, 58
 429. ORGANIĆCIAK, Józef, 37
 430. ORGANIĆCIAK, Aniela, 34
 431. ORGANIĆCIAK, Andrzej, 31
 432. ORGANIĆCIAK, Franciszek, 31
 433. ORGANIĆCIAK, Józef, 31
 killed on Mar. 13, 1943, in a mass execution in the village Przewrotne for sheltering Jews
434. OSIKOWICZ, Andrzej, priest, living in Borysław (incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine) died in Majdanek concentration camp, having been sent there for helping Jews and for encouraging his parishioners to do the same 435. OSIŃSKI, Władysław, 63, living at Józefów, near Warsaw arrested on Oct. 20, 1942 and shot shortly afterwards for help to Jews 436. OSOJCA, Franciszek, 33, farmer, living at Okó, near Ostrowiec Świętokrzyski, Kielce prov.
 437. OSOJCA, Aniela, 28, his wife
 438. OSOJCA, Jan, 2, son shot by gendarmes from Lipsko on Dec. 14, 1942, for help to Jews 439. OSTROWSKA, Julianna, 80, living at Wolica, near Kozów, Kielce prov.
 killed in a massacre at her daughter's, Anna Kucharska's house on Jan. 29, 1943, for Kucharski's role in sheltering Jews (see: 294-298)
440. OWCZAREK, Karolina, 38, living at Konary, near Czêstochowa arrested for help rendered to Jews and sentenced to death by a special court in Czêstochowa, on June 1, 1944. Shot on Nov. 2, 1944 441. PACZKA, Rozalia, 53, from Wola Rafałowska, near Chmielnik, Rzeszów pr.
 shot by military police on Oct. 4, 1943, for sheltering Jews

442. PADUCH, Wiktoria, living in Radom sentenced to death together with others on Apr. 3, 1943, by a special court in Radom, for rendering help to Sala Rubinowicz and Elsa Schwarzman in their escape from ghetto (see: 59-60) 443. PAJŹK, Jan, 27, living at Matysówka, near Tyczyn, Rzeszów prov.
shot on Oct. 15, 1943 at Tyczyn in a group of 5 Poles sentenced to death for helping Jews (see: 191)
444. PAŁASZEWSKI, Leon, 42, living in Chełm
445. PAŁASZEWSKA, Helena Stanisława, 34, his wife shot by gendarmes on Jan. 6, 1942, for helping Jews
446. PANECZKO, Franciszek, from Wierzchowisko, near Wolbrom, Katowice pr.
447. PANECZKO, Jan
shot on Mar. 5, 1943 at Wierzchowisko for sheltering Jews
448. PAPCIAK, (name unknown) from Kaczorowy, near Jasło, Krosno prov.
shot by gendarmes in 1943 for giving help to Jews
449. PASTERNAK, Piotr, living at Bór Kunowski, near Brody, Kielce prov.
killed by Germans on July 4, 1943 for helping Jewish people 450. PATROŃSKI, Wojciech, living at Szklary, near Hyżne, Rzeszów prov.
shot in 1943 at Szklary, with the 3 sheltered Jews
451. PAWLAK, Teofil, farmer, living at Kruszew, near Pniewy, Radom prov.
killed with the 2 sheltered Jews on July 13, 1943 by military police from Grójec 452. PAZIUK, Tadeusz, civil servant, living in Cracow sentenced to death by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Cracow District Police for helping and sheltering Jews. Announcement published on Jan. 29, 1944
453. PAZUR, Anna living at Wawer, near Warsaw
454. PAZUR, Jan shot by gendarmes from Rembertów on Mar. 3, 1944, together with the Jew they sheltered: Herman Kaftal and Anna Wiêcek 455. PEŁC, Tadeusz, 22, farmer, living at Tarnawka, near Łańcut, Rzeszów pr.
shot by gendarmes in 1942 for help offered to Jews 456. PEŹYK, Stanisław, living at Cisie, near Cegów, Siedlce prov.
shot on June 28, 1943, with 24 villagers for sheltering Jews (see: 9)
457. PIASTUN, Michał, living in Lwów (city incorporated into the Ukraine)
sentenced to death by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Galician District Police for aiding Jews; announcement of Dec. 14, 1943 458. PIECHURA, Stefan, 33, farmer from Tarnawka, Near Łańcut, Rzeszów prov.
shot by SS from Łańcut on Dec. 27, 1943 for help rendered to Jews; died also Grzegorz Gajda (see: 130) 459. PIENKIEWICZ, Artur, living in Warsaw arrested by Gestapo on Apr. 18, 1944 for sheltering in his house 2 Jewish women: Ela Zótnik and Rifka Szaniecka. Killed in the concentration camp Stutthof in 1945. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"
460. PIERZYŃSKA, Maria, from Gwoździec, near Zakliczyn, Tarnów prov."
shot on Jan. 20, 1944 by German military policemen from Zakliczyn, for sheltering Benjamin and Roman Sukman 461. PIETRAK, Leonard, 42, farmer, from Tomaszewice, near Jastków, Lublin pr.
462. PIETRAK, Maria 32, second wife of Leonard
463. PIETRAK, Stanisław, 22, Leonard's son surrounded in their home by Germans on Feb. 28, 1944; the house was destroyed by grenades and the Pietrak family shot for providing food and temporary accomodation to 2 Jewish partisans. Their farmhand, Franciszek Chêæ and Stanis³aw Wierzbicki who lived in their house were also killed (see: 62, 646)

464. PIETRZYKOWSKI, Józef, doctor at Bobowa, Nowy S¹cz prov.

arrested and shot at the turn of 1942 for providing medical help to a Jewish child

465. PILAWSKI, W³adys³aw, living at Domaradz, near Krosno shot by German gendarmes on June 26, 1942 for help rendered to Jews

466. PINKUS, Jan, living in Radom

sentenced to death with other people on Apr. 3, 1943 by a special court Radom for helping Sala Rubinowicz and Elka Szwarzman (see: 59-60)

467. PIRGA, Aleksandra, farmer, living at Koz³ówek, near Strzyżów, Rzeszów pr.

shot by gendarmes with other people in June 1943 at Markuszowa for help to Jews hiding in the forest (see: 426)

468. PISKOREK, Kazimierz, railman, living in Kowel (city incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)

killed by military police for taking a Jewish refugee, Szpulman, from Kowel to Che³mno at the turn of 1942. The Jewish family he sheltered escaped 469. PIWKO, Stanis³aw, 31, farmer, from Paulinów, near Soko³ów Podlaski, Siedlce prov.

shot by an SS unit on Feb. 24, 1943 at Paulinów, in a group of 14 people, victims of a Nazi agent who pretended to be a Jewish fugitive (see: 14)

470. PŁATEK, Sylweryusz, living at Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov.

471. PŁATEK, Tomasz, his brother

shot on June 28, 1943 in a group of 25 villagers for sheltering Jews (see: 9)

472. PŁAWCZYŃSKA, Janina, over 70, living in Warsaw died with Rena Laterner for helping Jewish insurgents to contact underground members on the "Arian" side and in sheltering them (see 324)

473. PODGÓRSKI, Piotr, 39, village watchman from Wierbka, near Pilica, Katowice prov.

shot by Gestapo in early January 1943 for withholding information from the authorities about Jews sheltered by Maria Rogozińska (see 514-515)

474. POKROPEK, Stefan, living in Warsaw hoarded and supplied arms to the Warsaw ghetto, to the Jewish Fighting Organization (ŻOB) . On July 7 1943 German police forced its way into his flat, where he sheltered a Jewish insurgent: Tuvie Szejngut. Stefan committed suicide.

475. POLOŃSKI, Zenon, 20, living at Kozieniece, Kielce prov.

sentenced to death with other people by a special court in Radom, for helping Sala Rubinowicz and Elka Szwarzman, who escaped from the ghetto

476. POMYKAŁA, Łukasz, 47, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.

477. POMYKAŁA, Wojciech, 26

killed in a mass execution on Mar. 13, 1943 for feeding and sheltering Jews (see: 49-51)

478. PONIKOWSKA, Jadwiga, living in Warsaw murdered by Gestapo at the end of 1942 in her boarding house, on Widok Str. 11, together with her sister Regina Prokulska, for sheltering a Jewish teacher and a Jewish girl who were also killed (see: 483)

479. POPIS, Henryk, 20, worker, living at Celestynów, near Otwock, Warsaw pr.

shot together with his friend, Jan Witek, in July or August, 1942, on the charge of sheltering Jews (see: 675)

480. POSŁUSZNY, Józef, living at Nowa Wieś, near Rzeszów

- shot by gendarmes in July 1944, together with the 4 Jews he sheltered 481. PREJZNER, Józef, 50, living at Wola Komborska, Krosno prov.
482. PREJZNER, Katarzyna, 45 shot by SS in October 1943, with two other Polish women and the two Jews whom they sheltered (see: 169) 483. PROKULSKA, Regina, living in Warsaw murdered by Gestapo for sheltering in the boarding house of Jadwiga Ponikowska a Jewish teacher and a Jewish girl, killed with them. (see: 478)
484. PRÓCHNICKA, Ada, liason officer, living in Cracow as a liason officer of the Cracow branch of the Relief Council for Jews (Rada Pomocy Żydom) "Łęgota" she went several times to Lwów, to bring back Jewish women who were endangered there. She brought back Róża Kfare, Helena Szumańska, dr. Zina Paduchowa, Helena Ehrlich and others. Early in 1944 she was arrested on the train near Tarnów and murdered 485. PRUCHNIEWICZ, Józef, living at Biecz, near Jas³o, Krosno prov.
 shot by Gestapo in 1944 for sheltering the Plum family during 1942-44
486. PRZEKORA, Kazimierz, from Cielechowizna, near Mińsk Mazowiecki, Siedlce prov. shot on July 2, 1943 at that village by military police from Mińsk, with the 3 Jews he sheltered 487. PRZEŁAK, Helena, 58, primary school teacher at Jaworzno, Katowice prov.
488. PRZEŁAK, Jan, head of the school at Jaworzno, her husband arrested and imprisoned in Katowice, for sheltering several Jews in the school ;cellars. Transferred to Auschwitz on Aug. 26, 1942 and murdered there.
489. PRZYBYSZ, Jan, owner of a villa in Warsaw, Boernerowo district
490. PRZYBYSZ, (Christian name unknown) his wife
491. PRZYBYSZ, Jan's sister arrested at the end of 1943 or beginning of 1944 by Gestapo and military police for sheltering Jewish people. All shot in the meadows of Boernerowo 492. PRZYWODA, (Christian name unknown) 45, bricklayer, living at Kamionka Strumi³owa, near Lwów (city incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine) murdered by gendarmes from Tarnopol in winter of 1943/44, together with a Jewish girl sheltered by him 493. PSIODA, Jan, 70, living at Jaworze Dolne, near Pilzno, Tarnów prov.
494. PSIODA, Wiktoria, 70, his wife shot on Feb. 4, 1943, by Gestapo and Wehrmacht in a group of 4 farmers and 6 Jewish fugitives (see: 208) 495. PUŁA, Aniela 37, farmer, living at Zagórze, near Przeworsk, Przemy¶l prov. shot in September 1943, together with Aron Goldman, sheltered by her 496. PUŁA, Franciszek, living at D¹browa Tarnowska, Cracow prov.
 shot by gendarmes in March 1944, when they found a Jew hiding in his yard 497. PYRCAK, Micha³, living at Sanok, Krosno prov.
 arrested for his part in helping Jews, sent to the camp at Mauthausen, from where he never returned. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among Nations"
498. RACHTAN, Kazimierz, living in Cracow
 sentenced to death by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Cracow District Police for associating with and helping Jewish people; Public announcement from Jan. 29, 1944
499. RACHWALSKA, Aleksandra, 35, living at Stara Wie¶, near Hrubieszów, \Zamo¶æ prov.

shot by Wehrmacht soldiers with a Jew and his 2-3 year old child sheltered by her

Return

500. RACZYŃSKI, Piotr, 35, living at Motycz Leńny, near Lublin shot by German gendarmes in March 1942 under the charge of aiding Jews

501. RADOMSKI, Stanisław, living in Lwów (city incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)

executed on Mar 7, 1944 in the local Brygidki prison for sheltering a small Jewish girl in Drohobycz

502. RADWAN, Feliks, living at Koszówka, near Zakopane, Cracow prov.

;sentenced to death for sheltering Jews; verdict passed by the special court of the SS commander and the Cracow District Police, at Zakopane, on Jan 29, 1942.

503. RADWAŃSKA, Anna Danuta, engineer, living at Siatkowice, near Sadowne, Siedlce prov.

arrested in July 1943 for sheltering a Jewish woman with a 15 years old son, who were killed immediately. Radwańska was taken to Pawiak prison in Warsaw and then sent to Auschwitz, where she died in April 1944

504. RADZIK, Stanisław, 40, farmer, living at Łużna, near Gorlice, Nowy Sącz pr.

505. RADZIK, Maria, his wife

Stanisław was shot on Sep.30, 1943 at Gorlice for sheltering 4 Jews. His wife was murdered on Jan. 26, 1944, during the investigation

506. RAFAŁOWICZ, Adam, 60, living in Radom shot on Sep. 18, 1942 for rendering help to Jews

507. RASZEJA, Franciszek, 46, Prof. and physician, living in Warsaw murdered on July 27, 1942, in the Warsaw ghetto, where he went, with a permit, called by a patient, Abe Gutmajer; all occupants of that flat were killed

508. RÊBIŃSKI, Józef, 61, farmer, living at Połomia, near Tarnów, Rzeszów prov.

509. RÊBIŃSKA, Anna, his wife

510. RÊBIŃSKA, Zofia, 27, daughter

511. RÊBIŃSKA, Wiktoria, 24, daughter

512. RÊBIŃSKI, Karol, 19, son murdered during a house search, together with 9 Jews whom they sheltered, on Sep. 9, 1943 by German police from Dębica. Killed also were Piotr Gawryński, Zofia Miela, a maid and 2 other Poles (see: 140, 382)

513. ROGIŃSKA, Janina, living at Wêgrów, Siedlce prov.

shot on June 15, 1943 by military policemen from Wêgrów, who discovered Jews hidden in the barn, incl. Moshe Ptak. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among Nations"

514. ROGOZIŃSKA, Maria, 40, worker, from Wierbka, near Pilica, Katowice pr.

515. ROGOZIŃSKI, Jan, 5, son

There was a group of Jews sheltered in the cellar of their house. Early in January 1943, when the Rogozińskis were away, volksdeutch neighbours brought the Gestapo, who murdered all the Jews together with Piotr Sendra, and Piotr Podgórski. The Gestapo threatened that the whole village would be punished if the Rogozinskis didn't show up, with the result that they were given away to the Germans and were killed on Jan 15, 1943. (see: 473. 543)

516. ROKICKI, Stanisław, living in a forester's lodge Czarna, near Mińsk Mazowiecki, shot on Mar 13, 1943, together with the 5 sheltered Jews: Teresa Pow¹zek and her husband, Helena Szpindler and her mother, Abram S³omka, and 2 fugitives Soviet POW.

Siedlce prov

517. RÓ⁻AÑSKA, Maria, living in Radom

sentenced to death with others on Apr.3, 1943, by a special court in Radom for helping Jewesses: Ela Szwarzman and Sala Rubinowicz (see: 59-60)

518. RUCHA^ŁA, Józef, living at Librantowa, near Nowy S¹cz

519. RUCHA^ŁA, Weronika his wife

;shot for supplying food to Jews hiding in forest

520. RUDECKA, Maria, 48, owner of an estate at Wodzis³aw, near Sêdziszów, Kielce prov.

shot on Apr. 27 for repeated help to Jewish people

521. RUMAK, Jakub, 34, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów pr.

522. RUMAK, Józef, 31

shot on June 10, 1943 in a mass execution for sheltering Jews at Hucisko (see:19-20)

523. RUMIN, Maria, farmer, living at Popradów, near Nowy S¹cz

524. RUMIN, Jan, her son

shot with the 5 Jews they sheltered: the Kaufer family from Zawada 525. RUSIN, Antoni, 41, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów pr.

killed on Mar. 13, 1943 in a group of 30 Poles for helping Jews (see: 49-51)

526. RUTKOWSKI, Dawid, living at Ignaców, Siedlce prov.

shot on Mar. 30, 1943, together with Jan Gawrych and Stanis³aw Skuza and a group of Jewish partisans they helped (see: 139)

527. RUTKOWSKI, W³adys³aw, living at Chodniów, near Bia³a Rawska, Skierniewice prov.

528. RUTKOWSKA, Genowefa, his wife sentenced to death by a special court in Piotrków, on June 23, 1943, for sheltering Chaim Beleberg and another Jew; both died with them.

529. RUTKOWSKI, Józef, living at Tymienica, near Chotcza, Radom prov.

killed at the end of 1942, with 5 others for helping Jews (see: 320-322)

530. RYBA, Józef, 23, living at Jaworze Dolne, near Tarnów, Rzeszów prov.

murdered on Feb. 4, 1943 with Maria Ka³u³ęa amd her family for sheltering Jews (see: 208)

531. RYBAK, Katarzyna, 60, from Lipowiec, near Zwierzyniec, Zamo[¶]æ prov killed for her coincidental presence at the house of Wojciech Kusiak, whose family was killed for sheltering Jews (see: 311-313)

532. RYCERZ, Anna Maria, living in Warsaw arrested on Dec. 2, 1943 with her sisters: Jadwiga ¹/₄ and Janina ⁻elichowska, and a relation Helena ¹/₄, for help rendered to Jews. l four were placed in the Pawiak prison and shot on Dec. 10, 1943 in the ruins of the ghetto (see: 606-607, 701)

533. RYGIEL, Pawe³, living at Wierzbica, near Koz³ów, Kielce prov.

534. RYGIEL, (Christian name unknown) his wife

535. RYGIEL, (Christian name unknown) their son shot together with Pawe³ Wandersman and his sister By German gendarmes in December 1943, for sheltering Jews (see: 631-632)

536. R⁻YSKO, Edward, living at Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov.

shot on June 28, 1943, in a group of 25 Poles for sheltering Jew (see: 9)

537. SAMOJEDNY, Jan, 56, farmer, living at G³ogów Ma³opolski, near Rzeszów

538. SAMOJEDNA, Maria, 52, his wife shot in their home by German police on Feb. 19, in Pruszków, Warsaw pr. for sheltering

Jews

539. SASKI, W³adys³aw, railway metal worker, from Pruszków, Warsaw prov.

shot on June 28, 1943 in a group of 25 Poles from the village of Cisie for sheltering Jews (see: 9)

540. SAWICKA, Emilia, 50, farmer, living at Korolówka, near Borszczów, (plce incorporated after the war in tho the Soviet Ukraine)

541. SAWICKI, Nikodem, 17, her son

Emilia and her 3 sons have sheltered in 1943-44 sisters Rena Hausner and Pola Henefeld, with her husband Leon. Shortly after the war the Jews left Korolówka. When Ukrainian bandits came, they, not having found the Jews, murderd Emilia and Nikodem. Both posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"

542. SEMIK, Jan Jakub, postman, living at Limanowa, Nowy S¹cz prov.

9 Jews were arrested in Limanowa on Sep. 6, 1939 and while being loaded into vehicles, were spat upon and beaten. Semik, able to speak German, tried to intervene, for which he too was shot with the Jews near Mordarka

543. SENDRA, Piotr, 27, gardener, living at Wierbka, near Pilica, Katowice prov.

murdered by Gestapo early in January 1943 for cooperation in helping a group of Jews in the home of Maria Rogozińska (see: 514-515)

544. SÊDŁAKOWSKA, Janina, living at Zwierzyniec, Zamo[¶]æ prov murdered on Oct. 24, 1942 for help rendered to Jews

545. SÊKOWSKA, Magdalena, living in Przemy[¶]l

On a number of occasions she hid in her flat on the corner of Janowska and Grodzka Street, young Jewish fugitives from Lwów. Jews escaped from the Lwów ghetto to the Łyczaków cememery, from which her son-in-law, a railway mechanic, brought them to Przemy[¶]l. Arrested by Gestapo in 1942, beaten and tortured, brought to Auschwitz, she soon perished there.

546. SIEWIERSKI, Stefan, 19, living in Warsaw socialist activist in a youth organization, captured in May 1940, while conducting Jews out of the ghetto to the woods. He died in the Gestapo jail on Szucha Str. in Warsaw, after torture Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations".

547. SINIARSKI, Stanis³aw, 45, farmer, living at Lutkówka near Mszczonów, Sierniewice prov.

548. SINIARSKA, Marianna, 43, his wife\

549. SINIARSKI, Marian Józef, 16, son

550. SINIARSKA, Irena, 9, daughter

551. SINIARSKI, Edward, 8, son

All were shot on Mar. 10, 1944, by military police from Mszczonów for sheltering 3 Jews: the Lipszyc family, who died also 552. SKALSKI, Stanis³aw, 50, teacher, living in Łęczyca, P³ock prov.

arrested in 1942 by Gestapo for organizing escapes of Jews. He died from beatings and torture

553. SKOCZYLAS, Piotr, living at Rekówka, near Ciepiałów, Radom prov

554. SKOCZYLAS, Leokadia, 8, his daughter burned alive on Dec. 6, 1942 by military policemen in a group of villagers for feeding and sheltering Jews. (see: 243-257)

555 SKOLIMOWSKI, Alfons, 32, farmer, from Roguziec, Near Mordy, Siedlce pr.

shot on Mar. 2, 1943 at Roguziec, by military police for sheltering Jews

556. SKŁADKOWSKA, Halina, living in Lwów (city incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine)

- sentenced to death by the commander of the SS and the Galician District Police for helping Jews. Announcement from Dec. 14, 1943
557. SKRZAK, Wojciech, 50, farmer, living at |wiesielice, Radom prov.
murdered on Dec. 7, 1942 in a group of 14 people by gendarmes from Ciepiałów, for helping Jews (see: 84) 558. SKUZA, Stanisław, living at Ignaców. Siedlce prov.
shot on Mar. 30, 1943 with Jan Gawrych and Dawid Rutkowski together with a group of Jewish partisans whom they helped (see: 139, 526)
559. SKWARA, Irena, living in Warsaw shot as she was leaving Warsaw in Sep. 1944, before the collapse of the Warsaw uprising, accompanied by Wacław Turski-Teitelbaum, whom she sheltered and who was killed too 560. SKWIECIŃSKI, Eugeniusz, living at Cisie, near Cegów, Siedlce prov.
shot on June 28, 1943 in a group of 25 villagers for sheltering Jews (see: 84)
561. SKWIRA, Marianna, 40, farmer, living at |wiesielice, Radom prov.
murdered on Dec. 7, 1942 in a group of 14 people by gendarmes from Ciepiałów, for help in sheltering Jews (see: 19-20)
562. SLEMP, Jan, farmer, living at Dylgówka, near Rzeszów arrested on Dec. 30, 1943 for sheltering in his apartment the horse tradesman Majer Zalcman; shot the next day with the Jewish man 563. SŁUJA, Józef, 31, from Przewrotne, near Gógów Małopolski, Rzeszów prov.
killed on June 10, 1943, in a mass execution carried out at Hucisko for helping and sheltering Jews (see: 9)
564. SMATER, Marian, living at Cisie, near Cegów, prov.....
565. SMATER, Piotr,
shot on June 28, 1943, in a group of 25 villagers for sheltering Jews (see: 9)
566. SOCHA, Rozalia, 53, worker, living at Wola Rafałowska, near Chmielnik, Rzeszów prov.
shot by gendarmes on Dec. 19, 1942, for sheltering 5 to 6 Jews 567. SOJKA, Stanisław, farmer, from Księżniczki, near Michałowice, Kielce prov.
shot on June 3, 1943 by the military police for trying to hide 3 Jews during a round-up in his barn at the farm of Stefan Kaczmarski (see: 206)
568. SOKÓŁ, Władysław, living at Wilczyska, near Wola Mysłowska, Siedlce prov.
shot on July 10, 1944 at |elechów for concealing 3 Jewish women, among them Maria and Hanka Popłowski, who died with him. Previously he sheltered also the families: Boruchowicz, Wajnbergs and Szyfman 569. SOLARZ, Antoni, 42, farmer, living at Biadoliny Radzowskie, near Tarnów shot by Gestapo from Cracow in 1944 for help to Jews, among them to Naftali Gries, a lawyer from Wojnicz, who died with him
570. SOŁOWSKI, Jan, farmer, living at Gruszka Zaporoska, near Zamość
571. SOŁOWSKA, Helena, his wife
572. SOŁOWSKA, Wanda, 12, daughter
573. SOŁOWSKI, Marian, 5, son the family sheltered a Jewish family of 7 persons, in a hide-out on their farm. In 1943 gendarmes from Szczebrzeszyn murdered all of them 574. SOŁTYŚ, Bronisława, 1 year old, living at Radgoszcz-Poręba, Tarnów prov.
575. SOŁTYŚ, Janian, 4, her sister murdered on Nov. 28, 1942 together with their grandmother, Zofia Kmiec, who sheltered Jews (see: 219-220)

576. SOŁTYŚ, Maria, farmer, from Radgoszcz, near D¹browa Tarnowska, Cracow prov.

shot by German gendarmes at Radgoszcz on Sep. 13, 1942, with Maria Wójcik and the sheltered Jew Szija Grinstam, also a local farmer (see: 678)

577. SOSNOWSKI, Aleksander, living at Zawada, near Ka³uszyn (incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)

578. SOSNOWSKA, Antonina, 17, daughter murdered together with 2 daughters of the Jewish local innkeeper: Ucia and Cinnia Fuchs, by Ukrainian nationalists, on Feb. 24, 1944

579. STARZEC, W³adys³aw, from Szarwark near D¹browa Tarnowska, Tarnów shot on July 5, 1943 at Szarwark, together with neighbours who had also been involved in helping Jews, incl. the Mendala family (see 376-379)

580. STAWARSKI, Bronis³aw, living at Sieniawa, near Przeworsk, Rzeszów prov.

581. STAWARSKA, (Christian name unknown) his wife

Bronis³aw shot in 1943. together with the 2 sheltered Jews; his wife, sent to a concentration camp, from which she never returned

582. STEFANEK, Barbara, 72, living at Boisko, near Lipsko, Radom prov.

shot on Nov. 7, 1943, in a group of 3 persons for help to Jews

583. STELMASZCZYK, Alfred Krzysztof, 19, from Gawartowa Wola, near Warsaw shot on Mar. 22, 1943, together with a couple who helped a Jewess

584. STÊPNIEWSKI, Jan, 55, living at Marchaty, near Piotrków Trybunalski shot on May 6, 1943, in Piotrków, sentenced to death by a special court for sheltering a Jew

585. STÊPNIEWSKI, Eugeniusz, post-office official, living in Nowy S¹cz.

tortured in Mar. 1942 by the local Gestapo head, Hamann, because he systematically destroyed information about Jews. Transferred to Tarnów prison he died there

586. STRUTYŃSKA, Maria, from Drohobycz, (incorporated into the Ukraine)

arrested in her flat in June 1943 by Gestapo for sheltering with her daughters, Kazimiera and Teresa, 13 people of Jewish origin, belonging to the Krempel, Hennefeld and Herman families. Taken to a prison in Lwów, Strutyńska was sentenced to death and shot in Mar. 1944. The daughters escaped, as did one of the sheltered Jews, Lidia Hennefeld

587. SUCHECKI, Józef, living at Gniewosów, Radom prov.

shot in August 1943, together with Jan Wolski, for sheltering Jews, fugitives from the Gniewosów camp. The warned Jews escaped (see: 666)

588. SURDACKI, Zygmunt, 36, priest, living in Lublin

as the administrator of the Lublin diocese he often used to render help to Jews; he was sent to Auschwitz, where he died in 1941

589. SUSICH, Adam, 53, living at Hucisko, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów pr.

shot in a mass execution of June 10, 1943, for sheltering Jews (see: 19-20)

590. SUSZ, Natalia, living at Rudańce (place incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)

sentenced to death by a special court for helping Jews; public notice issued by the commander of the SS and the Cracow District Police of Dec. 14, 1943

591. SYGIEWICZ, Witold, civil servant, living in Cracow

sentenced to death by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Cracow District Police for helping Jews; public notice of Jan. 29, 1944)

592. SZABATA, Kazimierz, ca 40, from Majdan Stary, near Ksiêcpol, Zamo³ pr.

shot on Dec. 28, 1942 by military police from Bi³goraj, in the house of Józef Pelc, for whom he worked, mistakenly identified as the son of Anastazja³ubiarz, a neighbour, who has been helping Jews (see: 147, 344-345)

593. SZAFRAŃSKI, Roman Jan, 64, living in Radom

arrested with his wife, Jadwiga, for sheltering during 1940-1943 a Jewish girl, Anna Kerc (born in 1937); sent in 1943 to Gross-Rosen where he died. His wife was sent to Ravensbrück, but she survived. The girl died

594. SZCZEPANIAK, Antoni, from Trêbaczew, near Sadkowice, Skierniewice pr.

595. SZCZEPANIAK, Stanisław, his brother

596. SZCZEPANIAK, Władysław, his brother shot on Dec. 11, 1943, by military police, together with their neighbour Jan Domeradzki, for giving refuge to a Jewish family during that year. The father of that family was killed also (see: 107)

597. SZCZĘSNY, Jan, living at Cisie, near Cegów, Siedlce prov.

killed on June 28 in a group of 25 inhabitants for sheltering Jews (see: 9)

598. SZEPIETOWSKA, Katarzyna, 40, living at Podborek, Radom Prov.

599. SZEPIETOWSKI, Józef, 7, son

they died on July 11, 1943, on the Kowalczyk's family farm-yard, shot by gendarmes on the charge of helping Jews (see: 264-266)

Return to main page

More Names of Polish Rescuers Killed While Helping Jews...

600. SZKOTAK, Józef, living at ędźary, near Czarna, Tarnów prov.

601. SZKOTAK, Teresa, his wife

shot in fall 1943 in the village of ędźary together with the sheltered Jews

602. SZLOSSER, Jan, 42, from Ossala, near Baranów Sandomierski, Tarnobrzeg prov.

shot by gendarmes on July 6, 1943 for cooperation in saving Jews

603. SZPARKOWSKI, Józef, ca. 33, living in Warsaw betrayed by the Volksdeutsche Sowiecka, he was killed on May 23, 1943, together with the 8 survivors of the ghetto uprising he was sheltering. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"

604. SZYPERSKA, Józefa, living at Cisie, near Cegów, Siedlce prov.

killed on June 28, 1943 in a group of 25 villagers for sheltering Jews (see:9)

605. ŁADOWSKA, Halina

sentenced to death by a special court of the SS and the Galician District Police for sheltering Jews; public notice issued on Dec. 14, 1943 in Lwów

606. ŁEDŃ, Helena, living in Warsaw arrested on Dec. 2, 1943 together with her relation, Jadwiga Łed^{1/4} and her sisters for help to Jews. Sent to Pawiak prison, she was shot on Dec. 10, 1943 in the ruins of the Warsaw ghetto (see: 607)

607. ŁEDŃ, Jadwiga, living in Warsaw arrested on Dec. 2, 1943 with her sisters Anna Rycerz and Janina elichowska, as well as with other relation, Helena Łed^{1/4}, for help to Jews. Placed in Pawiak prison, with the others, she was shot on Dec. 10, 1943 in the ruins of the Warsaw ghetto (see: 532, 606, 701)

608. ŁIWA, Władysław (or Wojciech) 26, former N.C.O., from Kozów, near Strzyżów, Rzeszów prov.

shot by gendarmes with a group of others in June 1943 at Markuszowa village for help to Jews, hiding in the forest (see: 426)

609. ŁIWIŃSKI, Jan 49, worker, living at Paulinów, near Sokołów Podlaski, Siedlce prov.

shot by the SS on Feb. 24, 1943 at Paulinów, together with a group of 14 people, victims of a Nazi provocation. (see: 14)

610. TATOMIR, Jan 49, mason from Jaros³awice, Tarnopol prov.(incorporated after the war into the Soviet Ukraine) with his wife and daughter, he gave refuge to 6 Jews in a shelter dug under his house. He was killed in 1943. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"

611. TOKARCZYK, Regina, 76, living at Pielgrzymka, near Krosno.

612. TOKARCZYK, Karolina, 41, her daughter shot on July 15, 1943 near their home by German police for sheltering Jews

613. TOKARZ, Jakub, 46, farmer, living at Biedaczów, Rzeszów prov.

killed in 1942 by military police from Leżajsk, for sheltering 4 members of the Hersh Rummler's family, who also perished. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations"

614. TOKARZ, Jakub, farmer, living at Ptaszkowa, Nowy S¹cz prov.

sentenced to death on May 3, 1944 by a special court of the SS and the Cracow District Police, for helping Chaim and Shmul Neigreshel

615. TONKIEL, Stanis³aw, living at Karskie, near Repki, Siedlce prov.

killed on Apr. 1, 1942, with the sheltered Jews, by the military police

616. TROJANOWSKI, Stanis³aw, living at Kawęczyn, Skierniewice prov.

shot in spring of 1944, by Gestapo for sheltering Abraham Rosenberg and his son, with 4 other Jews. Died also his friend Jakub Fedorowicz (see: 122)

617. TRUSIEWICZ, (Christian name unknown) from Obórka, near Cumañ after the war incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)

murdered in November 1942 for helping Jews

618. TRYBURSKI, Józef, 38, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski Rzeszów prov.

killed in a mass execution on May 9, 1943 for helping Jews (see: 70-71)

619. TYLAWSKA, Anastazja, living at Rozdziele, near Gorlice, Krosno prov.

shot in 1943 for sheltering Leib Jaskow from Mécina

620. ULMA, Józef, farmer, living at Markowa near Łañcut, Rzeszów prov.

621. ULMA, Wikktoria, his wife

622. ULMA, Antoni, son

623. ULMA, Barbara, daughter

624. ULMA, Franciszek, son

625. ULMA, Marian, son

626. ULMA, Stanis³awa, daughter

627. ULMA, W³adys³aw, son

the 8 members family was killed by the Germans in 1943 with the Jews sheltered in their attic: the Chol family of 5 people from Łañcut, Golda and Layka Goldman with her daughter. The oldest of the Ulmas children was 7 years old and the youngest was 18 months old 628. WACH, Tomasz, 41, farmer, from Brzoza Królewska, near Leżajsk, Rzeszów prov.

shot on Mar. 28, 1943 by gendarmes from Leżajsk, for cooperation in sheltering Jews for several months. The Jews were killed also (see: 275-276)

629. WALC, Jan, 45, farmer, from Przewrotne near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.

killed on Mar. 13, 1943 in a group of 30 people for sheltering Jews in the village (see: 49-51)

630. WALCZEWSKI, Wies³aw, living at Broszków, near Kotuñ, Siedlce prov.

arrested on June 28, 1943, at Cisie, pacified for help given by its inhabitants o Jews; put in the Pawiak jail in Warsaw, and shot there on Jan. 13, 1944.

631. WANDERSMAN, Pawe³, living at Wierzbica, near Koz³ów, Kielce prov.

632. WANDERSMAN, his sister shot in December 1943, together with Pawe³ Rygiel and his family for sheltering Jews (see: 533-535)

633. WANOSKA, Franciszek, 18, farmer from Przewrotne. near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov killed with 29 people on Mar. 13, 1943, for sheltering Jews (see: 49-50).

634. WAWRZONEK, Maria, 39, from Jastrz¹bka Stara, near Dêbica, Tarnów pr.

shot in December 1943 by Gestapo from Dêbica, for sheltering Jews

635. WaSOWSKI, Jan, railway worker, living at Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov.

636. WŹSOWSKA, Aleksandra, his wife

637. WŹSOWSKI, Mieczys³aw, her son killed on June 28, 1943 at Ceg³ów with 24 villagers from Cisie, for sheltering Jews (see: 9)

638. WDOWIAK, Benedykt, 58, farmer, living at |wiesielice, Radom prov.

639. WDOWIAK, Aleksandra, 17, his daughter

640. WDOWIAK, Marianna, 94, Benedykt's mother murdered on Dec. 7, 1942 in a group of 14 people by gendarmes from Ciepeliów, for help rendered to Jews (see: 84)

641. WÊGLIŃSKI, Marcin, 61, farmer, living at K¹ty, near Nisko, Tarnobrzeg pr.

shot by Gestapo on Sep. 12, 1942, together with Lejzor Graf whom he sheltered

642. WÊ[~]OWICZ, Wiktoria, living at Szarwark, near D¹browa Tarnowska Tarnów prov.

killed on July 5, 1943 with her daughter, Teresa Mendala and her family for help to Jews (see: 376-379)

643. WIERZBA, Jan, 43, farmer, living at Paw³owice, near Micha³ów, Kielce prov.

sheltered in his house 5 Jews Kopel; in February 1942 he was detained with 2 of them.

Sent to Majdanek, then to Auschwitz, he was killed there

644. WIERZBANOWSKI, Maria, living at Pos¹dza, near Koniusza, Cracow prov.

645. WIERZBANOWSKI, Stanis³aw

killed on June 22, 1943, for aiding Jews. Teofil Nowak with his daughter, Zêbala, Katarzyna [~]muda and her children were killed also; (see: 399-400)

646. WIERZBICKI, Stanis³aw, living at Tomaszowice, near Jastków, Lublin prov.

shot by military police on Feb. 28, 1944; expelled from Poland's Western lands, he stayed with Leonard Pietrak's family, killed for sheltering Jews (see: 461-463)

647. WIÊCKIEWICZ, Leon, priest, living in Warsaw arrested on Dec. 3, 1943 for his part in helping Jewish people, perished on Aug. 4, 1944 in Gross-Rosen camp

648. WIKTORZAK, Aleksandra, 63, from Paulinów, near Soko³ów Podlaski, Siedlce prov.

shot by the SS on Feb. 24, 1943 at Paulinów, with 13 other people, victims of a Nazi provocation (see: 14)

649. WILCZAK, Zofia, living at Wysoka, Rzeszów prov.

shot in spring 1944, with her father -in-law for sheltering Jews

650. WILK, Franciszek, 41, from Przewrotne, near G³ogów Ma³opolski, Rzeszów prov.

651. WILK, Jan, 24

652. WILK, Józef, 30

killed in a mass execution on Mar. 13, 1943 for sheltering Jews (see: 49-51)

653. WILK, Józef, living in Warsaw killed on Apr. 19, 1943, while fighting with a division of the Home Army (AK) near the ghetto wall on Bonifraterska Str., attempting to blast a hole in the wall 654. WILK, Katarzyna, 52, living at Wierzbno, near Koniusza, Cracow prov.
655. WILK, Mieczysław, soldier in the Peasant Battalions (B.Ch.)
656. WILK, Stanisław, 46 shot on Feb. 18, 1943 at Wierzbno for sheltering Jews 657. WITTEK, Jan, 21, worker, living at Celestynów, near Otwock, Warsaw prov.
shot in July or August 1942 with his friend Henryk Popis under the charge of sheltering Jews (see: 479)
658. WŁODARCZYK, Roman, living in Lublin sentenced to death on Dec. 23, 1943 for "sheltering and conspiring with Jews by a special court of the commander of the SS and the Secret Police for the Lublin region
659. WODA, Kasper, People's Movement ("Ruch Ludowy") activist, living at Gruszawa, near Miechów, Cracow prov.
arrested for sheltering Jews in November 1943, sent to Auschwitz, died there 660. WOJEWÓDKA, Ignacy, 50, farmer, living at Wieszelice, Radom prov.
662. WOJEWÓDKA, Marianna, 45, farmer, his wife
662. WOJEWÓDKA, Wacław, 21, farmer, son
663. WOJEWÓDKA, Jan, 18, farmer, son
664. WOJEWÓDKA, Stanisław, 12, son
665. WOJEWÓDKA, Józef, 7, son murdered by gendarmes from Ciepiałów, on Dec. 7, 1942, in a group of 14 people, for help rendered to Jews (see: 84) 666. WOLSKI, Jan, living at Gniewoszków, Radom prov.
shot in August 1943 with Jan Suchecki for sheltering several Jews, fugitives from the camp at Gniewoszków. The Jews were warned and escaped (see 587)
667. WOLSKI, Mieczysław, living in Warsaw with his family he built an underground shelter in his backyard on Grójecka Str., where from 1942 he gave refuge to 34 Jews, incl. the well-known historian Emanuel Ringelblum, with wife and son. The shelter was discovered on Mar. 7, 1944. Wolski, his nephew, Janusz Wysocki and all the fugitives were taken to Pawiak prison. All the Jews were shot soon in the ghetto ruins, while no trace of the Poles was ever found. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations" (see: 690)
668. WOŁOWIEC, Gabriel, farmer, from Zajczków, near Ciepiałów, Radom pr.
669. WOŁOWIEC, Stanisława, his wife
670. WOŁOWIEC, Bronisława, daughter
671. WOŁOWIEC, Janina, daughter
672. WOŁOWIEC, Leokadia, daughter
673. WOŁOWIEC, Kazimiera, daughter
Military police from Ciepiałów killed the 6 members family in January 1943, for helping Jews in hiding. Gabriel was arrested and executed earlier. The daughters were aged 3 to 12. With them were shot: Józef Jelonek, and the handicapped servant Franciszek Zaborowski. (see: 188, 692)
674. WOŁOWSKA, Marta, nun, S³onim (incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine) killed in 1941 in the Immaculate Conception Convent in S³onim, together with the Mother Superior, Ewa Noyszewska, for sheltering Jews (see: 404) 675. WOŃNIAK, Franciszek, from Pawów, near D¹browa Tarnowska, Cracow pr.

murdered with Micha³ Wójcik by gendarmes in the spring 1943 for sheltering Jews and helping them to escape by crossing the river (see: 679)

676. WOŃNIAK, Marian, living in Mińsk Mazowiecki, Siedlce prov.

killed in May 1944 for sheltering and helping Jews

677. WÓJCICKI, W³adys³aw, living at Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov.

killed at Ceg³ów on June 28, 1943, in a group execution at Cisie, for sheltering Jews (see: 9)

678. WÓJCIK, Maria, farmer, from Radgoszcz, near D¹browa Tarnowska, Cracow pr.

shot by German gendarmes at Radgoszcz on Sep. 13, 1942, with Maria So³tys and the sheltered Szija Grinstam, also a local farmer (see: 576)

679. WÓJCIK, Micha³, living at Paw³ów, near D¹browa Tarnowska, Cracow pr.

murdered with Franciszek Wo¹/₄niak in the spring 1943, for sheltering Jews and helping in their escape through the river (see: 675)

680. WÓJCIK, Micha³, 48, living at Po³om Ma³y, near Czchów, Tarnów prov.

shot on Dec. 26, 1944 by military police from Jurków with the sheltered Jew Goldfinger

681. WÓJCIK, Zofia, farmer, from Radgoszcz, near D¹browa Tarnowska, Cracow prov.

682. WÓJCIK, 3, her daughter

683. WÓJCIK, 2, her daughter

shot on Oct. 1942 together with the sheltered Jew

684. WÓJTOWICZ, Ryszard, living at Sadkowice, near Lipsko, Radom prov.

685. WÓJTOWICZ, Honorata, his wife

shot on Jan. 8, 1943 for help to Jews (see: 39-42)

686. WRÓBLEWSKI, Boles³aw, 51, farmer, living at Podbuszyce, near ̄yradów, Skierniewice prov.

687. WRÓBLEWSKA, his wife

Murdered by gendarmes in March 1941 with the 2 Jews sheltered by them, one of them by the name Wajnsztok

688. WYDMAŃSKI, Józef, farmer, living at Krêpa, near Miechów, Cracow prov.

shot by Gestapo on Sep. 23, 1944, with the hidden Jew. His farm was burnt down

689. WYSMULSKA, Zofia, farmer, living at Moszeñki, near Jastków, Lublin prov.

gave refuge to 4 Jews in an underground shelter and provided also 16 other Jews hiding in the forest with food and medicines. She was shot by military police on Sep. 25, 1943. Her husband escaped; the sheltered Jews and Marianna Barszcz, a Wysmólski employee, were killed also (see: 29)

690. WYSOCKI, Janusz, living in Warsaw arrested on Mar. 7, 1944, for helping Mieczys³aw Wolski in constructing an underground shelter and in helping the 34 Jews in that shelter; died in unknown circumstances. Posthumously awarded the medal "Righteous Among the Nations" (see: 667)

691. WYSOCZAŃSKA, pharmacist, living at Sokal (incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)

murdered in February 1942 together with the 3 sheltered Jewish girls

692. ZABOROWSKI, Franciszek, 40, from Zaj¹czków, near Ciepeliów, Radom pr.

killed in January 1943 by military police from Ciepeliów with the Wo³owiec family, for sheltering Jews (see: 668-673)

693. ZAGAŃCZYK, Jan, living at Cisie, near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov.

killed on June 28, 1943, with many others, for help to Jews (see: 9)694. ZAGÓRSKI, Piotr, farmer, living at Koz³ówek, near Strzyżów, Rzeszów prov.

shot by gendarmes in a group of people in June 1943 at Markuszowa, for help to Jews hiding in the forest (see: 426)

695. ZAJŹC, Franciszek, from Wola Skrzydlańska near Limanowa, Nowy S¹cz pr. sent to Dachau, where he died, for sheltering a Jewish woman, also killed

696. ZAJŹC, Ludwik, living at Cisie near Ceg³ów, Siedlce prov. killed on June 28, with many Cisie villagers, for help to Jews

697. ZAJDEL, Karolina , living at Nadolno, near Krosno arrested at the end of 1944 by gendarmes, for sheltering a Jew, who was shot while trying to escape; she was murdered in the prison of Dukla
698. ZÊBALA, living at Pos¹dza, near Koniusza, Cracow prov. shot in a group of 8 Poles on June 22, 1943 at Pos¹dza for sheltering Jews (see: 399-400)
699. ZIELIŃSKA, an industrialist's wife, from Lwów (incorporated into the Soviet Ukraine)

;arrested in autumn for sheltering a Jew of 40 years, also an industrialist; sent to Majdanek, from where she never returned

700. ZIELIŃSKA, Rozalia, 35, farmer, from Gumniska, near Dêbica, Tarnów pr. shot by gendarmes on July 17, 1943 for sheltering Samuel Wind, a taylor from Dêbica

701. ŒELICHOWSKA, Janina, living in Warsaw arrested on Dec. 2, 1943, together with her sisters, Anna Rycerz and Jadwiga Œled¹/₄ and a relation of that last, Helena Œled¹/₄, for help rendered to Jewish families. All four were put in Pawiak prison and shot in the ruins of ghetto on Dec. 10, 1943 (see: 607)

702. ŒMUDA, Katarzyna, 40, living at Pos¹dza, near Koniusza, Cracow prov.

703. ŒMUDA, Teresa, 18, daughter

704. ŒMUDA, Zdzis³aw, 10, son shot on June 22, 1943 at Pos¹dza in a group of 8 Poles for sheltering Jews (see: 399-400)